King Me Kong LLC currently operates Hanoi House, a Vietnamese restaurant with 10 dining seats surrounding an open kitchen and 32 additional seats at 16 tables. Lines often form at opening, and during peak seating, however we do not have a waiting area or bar for patrons waiting for tables so the entrance is often crowded. We use waitlist software to take names and text when the table is ready, though patrons do occasionally gather on the sidewalk. We always encourage guests to visit nearby shops and bars although many of our guests do not drink alcohol.

For these reasons, we are seeking to alter our space by combining the existing restaurant with the neighboring space to the west (also 119 St. Marks Place and formerly Five Tacos). There will be a connection of the two spaces on the current west wall. We hope to create a more comfortable check-in and waiting experience for our guests, as well as reduce the number of patrons waiting outside for a table. The attached plans show a new entrance, a small reception area, and a 9-seat bar. The bar will offer open seating for waiting, drinking and dining. The 10-seat dining counter in the existing space will continue to function as-is; a host controlled seating area for dining. An additional benefit to the altered space is the addition of a second guest restroom.

The new bar will open 30 minutes before the restaurant to eliminate the line at opening time; we are therefore requesting a modification to the start time of the license to 5pm.

Thank you for your consideration.
