MANHATTAN COMMUNITY
BOARD 3

Dear CB3 SLA Committee,

Thank you for allowing me this chance to present my concept to you tonight. It has been my dream to open a high-end restaurant that presents the perspective of the Hakka people from my home base in NYC's Chinatown.

We want to bring contemporary dishes that respect Chinese classical cuisine traditions that have stood the test of time to New York City. Hakka (客家) literally mean "guest families" who settled in present day South China from northern regions, are a people who historically are in constant movement including migration overseas. The Hakka Diaspora worldwide is estimated at over 120 million and one of the first groups of Chinese Americans to call New York City home. Our dishes represent the places where the Hakka people have been and plan to go. From our home base in Chinatown, Hakka Cuisine is adding another perspective to NYC's culinary vibrancy.

I first became involved with the Chinatown community when I was an undergraduate at Baruch College. As an immigrant, I wanted to be more involved with community activities. I started volunteering with the Chinese Chamber of Commerce to provide free tax prep assistance to residents. Later, I became more involved with the Chinese communities' many family associations that connected us to our ancestry. And recently, I became the President of the Li Family Association, NYC Chapter.

Over the years, I've been lucky in the business sector where I've been able to build successful enterprises such as the Confucius Social Daycare and Golden Touch Home Health. Both are connected to the community and support the quality of life for our senior population. The Chinese American community has a staggering aging population that need our support. Part of the Hakka Cuisine goal is not only to bring a different culinary perspective to NYC but also to provide quality fresh local ingredients and eat food that bring back fond family memories.

As someone of Hakka heritage, I would like my restaurant to bring classic dishes rooted in a culinary tradition to modern day New York City. Hakka Cuisine is located at 11 Division where the former Fuleen Seafood Restaurant was and made its name as a reputable venue for classic Cantonese food.

This will be a family and community centered establishment. To match with our culinary approach, we would like to offer a variety of liquors. I hope CB3 can support this new culinary venture in the heart of Chinatown. Please contact for any questions and concerns.

Sincerely,
Wade Li
Principal
