Public Session
Ann Northrup and Andy Humm	The speakers are members of the Reclaim Pride Coalition which is holding the Queer Liberation March on June 30th to honor the legacy of Stonewall. They consider their March the alternative peoples’ political march with no corporate floats or police presence. It takes place on the same day as the Heritage Pride March but runs from Sheridan Square up Sixth Avenue to Central Park beginning at 10am. A rally will be held in the Park.
Julia Knight and Samantha Hirsh	Ms. Knight made an announcement for Poster House – the first museum in the United States dedicated solely to posters. Poster House, located at 119 West 23rd Street, will hold a family-friendly open house on June 1 st from 11am to 5pm. The official opening of the museum will be on June 20th.
Michael Steigman	Mr. Steigman is the market operations manager for Down to Earth Farmers Markets. The Chelsea market will open on Saturday, May 4th at 9:00am. It is located on the Northeast corner of West 23rd Street and Ninth Avenue and stays open until 4pm. He mentioned that the Market’s host organization – Holy Apostles Church on Ninth Avenue – will allow food scrap drop-offs at its brown bin on Saturdays.
Jeremy Carmel and Matthew Reames	Mr. Carmel lives on West 27th Street between 10th and 11th Avenues across from Il Bastardo, whose liquor license alteration application is the subject of Agenda Item 14. He opposes the application because he considers Il Bastardo a bad neighbor and wants the full Board to vote in favor of the BLP Committee’s denial letter.

Maria Diaz	Ms. Diaz is the Executive Director of the Greenwich Village Chelsea Chamber of Commerce, which this year is celebrating its 70th Anniversary. The Chamber helps businesses and professionals build relationships with members of the community. Visit their website to learn more and become a member. https://www.villagechelsea.com/
Lisa Wager	As the Director of Government and Community Relations at the Fashion Institute of Technology, Ms. Wager reviewed current news and upcoming events at FIT: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • IBM has collaborated with the FIT/Infor Design and Technology Lab to leverage IBM’s artificial intelligence (AI) for fashion capabilities. Students from Fashion Design and three programs in the Business School will work with IBM’s AI teams to help leading fashion companies develop solutions to challenges in product design, merchandising, planning and allocation, and customer sales and service. At the same time, FIT faculty will be looking at how to integrate some of IBM’s AI tools into the curriculum in Math, Science, Creative Technology and Design, and FBM. • Several exhibitions of graduating students from the School of Arts and Design will be installed throughout the FIT campus from Wednesday, May 15th through Wednesday, May 22nd. The exhibitions will display the best work of graduating students in every department in Arts and Design.
Marni Halasa	Ms. Halasa spoke on behalf of the activist group Fight for NYCHA that recently held a protest campaign against NYCHA’s privatization plans for the Fulton and Elliot/Chelsea developments, as well as other developments in Manhattan and Brooklyn covering 62,000 apartments that would be managed by private developers. The plan would come under the federal Rental Assistance Demonstration program and would convert these units to federal Section 8 housing. Ms. Halasa cited federal studies that found the RAD program involves insufficient vetting of managers and too little oversight by NYCHA. She also gave examples of cases where tenants have lost their apartments under RAD.
Rick Criswell	Mr. Criswell is the general manager of the McKittrick Hotel on West 27th Street next door to Il Bastardo. He noted the letter that he sent to the Board recently complaining about the stress that Il Bastardo’s customers have created for his staff. He stated that he had to hire additional security to deal with the problem. He asked the Board to approve the BLP letter.
Jeffrey LeFrancois	Jeffrey is Second Vice Chair of the Board but spoke in his capacity of Executive Director of the Meatpacking BID. He announced their annual electronics recycling event that will be held on Friday, May 10th between 11am and 4pm. The drop off location is on 14th Street just West of 8th Avenue on the south side of the street. There is no limit on the number of items that will be accepted.
Pamela Wolff	Pamela is a public member of the Chelsea Land Use Committee. She spoke as a resident of Chelsea in favor of the letter that is the subject of Agenda Item 4. She asked that the letter be approved in its entirety as it reflects the vital importance of preserving the historic building located at 418 West 20th Street.

Remarks from Elected Officials and Representatives
State Senator Robert Jackson	Senator Jackson made his first appearance before the Board since his election last year to represent the 31st Senate District – the narrow strip along the West Side that runs from Marble Hill down to Chelsea. The Senator is the Chair of the Committee on Cities, as well as a member of several others, including Education, Higher Education, Labor, and Housing & Buildings. He has focused his political career on full funding of public education from the time he was a school board president, through his twelve years on the New York City Council, and up to the present. His main battle has been with the State in getting the $4 billion of court-mandated funding that has been overdue for years. He indicated that it might finally happen now that Democrats are the majority in both chambers but admitted that the Governor still holds veto-proof control in Albany by virtue of the Silver v. Pataki decision of the Court of Appeals. He said the Democratic Party should push to gain another five or six seats in the Senate to overcome this obstacle.

He spoke about a farm worker bill he sponsored that would amend the Labor Law to require farm workers and domestic workers to be given at least one day of rest per week like other employees in New York. He said that this action was needed because farm workers are prohibited from joining unions in New York.

The Senator stated that there are nine bills in the Assembly that have to do with affordable housing and that he supports all of them. One, for example, would impose a vacancy tax on vacant or abandoned storefronts; another would prohibit landlords from charging tenants for legal fees without a court order.

Brian Lewis for BP Gale Brewer

Mr. Lewis made the following announcements on behalf of the Borough President:

- He congratulated the newly appointed members of the Board and noted that the BP had to make some tough cuts: for every 1 appointed candidate, six others were not able to be appointed. He noted, however, that there were other opportunities for community service, such as CECs, Neighborhood Advisory Committees and Community Advisory Boards. One should contact the BP's Director of Community Affairs, Rosie Mendez, regarding those options.
- He asked all Board members to save the date for the annual CB Reception at the Museum of Natural History, which will be held on Wednesday, May 29th from 6-8pm.
- A very productive meeting was held on April 11th between stakeholders in the bid to convert the former Bayview Correctional Facility into the Women's Building. Though all sides support the mission of the Women's Building, there had been some difficult unresolved questions that had been brewing over the past few months. During the discussion, it emerged that there was more common ground and willingness to collaborate than many realized.
- Staff members attended the inaugural session of the Garment District Alliance Programming Committee on April 4th. It is expected that the committee will soon distribute a draft RFP for programming that will utilize the $25 million allocated to support the garment manufacturing industry that characterizes the district.
- There has recently been much talk surrounding the City's plans for NYCHA's Fulton and Elliot/Chelsea Houses. The BP joined with other elected officials in calling on the City to release their plans to the public so that the community will have an opportunity to understand what is in store for their homes before they can meaningfully contribute to the conversation. The letter makes clear, whatever the plan is, that there will be no support for a plan that displaces or evicts residents, and which otherwise does not protect the communities of Fulton and Elliott/Chelsea.
- The Mayor's Office/DOT just announced that they will be moving forward with what they call a Transit-Truck-Priority Pilot on 14th Street during the L Train shutdown. This is a follow-up design to the originally planned and much-discussed Busway. A few weeks ago, the BP sent a letter to DOT requesting that they choose to move forward with the Busway plan, one of the two options they were weighing against traditional SBS lanes like the ones on 23rd and 34th Streets. The BP knows that there are legitimate concerns by those living on the side streets adjacent to 14th Street regarding traffic spillover onto 13th and 15th Streets and that there must be constant monitoring in the area.

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The Charter Revision Commission will hold its Manhattan hearing on a preliminary staff report on proposed changes to the NYC Charter in the City Council Chambers on May 9th at 6pm. Everyone is encouraged to read the proposals on the website charter2019.nyc and testify. Written testimony can be submitted online at chater2019.nyc/submit-your-ideas. • With Stonewall 50 and World Pride right around the corner, the BP has announced her Pride Ball at the Alhambra Ballroom in Harlem. Details and RSVP are forthcoming.
Matt Tighe for Assembly Member Dick Gottfried	The latest news from the MTA is that the M7 bus will be re-routed in June to allow for the bus to make a left turn onto 14th instead of 16th or 18th Streets. Trucks will also remain on 14th Street and not be re-routed. In the joint letter to NYCHA regarding Fulton Houses, it was stressed that the authors would not allow any plan to advance that does not protect and preserve the Fulton Houses community, that involves the displacement of residents from the Fulton Houses property, or that diminishes tenant rights or affordability. The Congressman was the lead co-sponsor of a Green amendment to the state constitution that passed in the Assembly and is expected to pass in the Senate. If it does, then it would have to be re-introduced in the next legislative session to get on the ballot in 2021. The amendment would effectively say that each person has a right to clean air and water and a healthful environment. The Assembly took up the issue of maternal mortality this month as a result of increased maternal mortality in the City and a finding that there is a wide disparity in incomes of mothers who die during childbirth. Black women in New York are two to three times more likely to die than white women. A bill was introduced to create a Maternal Mortality Review Board that would review every death, identify causes and establish strategies to reduce the risk. The bill is awaiting the Governor's signature.
Dimandja Utshudi for D.A. Cyrus Vance	On April 16th, in partnership with the Secret Service and the U.S. Postal Service, the D.A. announced the first-of-its-kind indictment of a dark web storefront that sold and shipped drugs to people in 43 states and laundered about $2.3 million in cryptocurrency. The D.A. was able to pursue the indictment through information obtained about suspicious ATM withdrawals in New York and New Jersey.
