

How do we protect and preserve our critical public open spaces in light of encroaching real estate development?

What effect will new mega-towers have on transportation, congestion, and other public infrastructure?

What will become of our landmarks and other architectural treasures?

---

Manhattan Community Board Five invites you to join us for a discussion on the future of our city's most valuable public resources.

---

WHEN: WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 19TH, 6 PM
WHERE: The New York Public Library, Stephen A. Schwarzman Building
FIFTH AVENUE and 42ND STREET

---

Panelists to Include:

Gary Barnett - President, Extell Development Company

Peg Breen - President, New York Landmarks Conservancy

Michael Kwartler - Architect & Urban Planner

Margaret Newman - Executive Director, Municipal Art Society

Warren St John - Former New York Times reporter and columnist

Moderated by:

Layla Law-Gisiko - Chair, Landmarks Committee, CB5

Co-Sponsors:

Borough President

Gale Brewer

State Senators

Brad Hoylman & Liz Krueger

Assemblymember

Richard Gottfried & Linda Rosenthal

City Councilmembers

Dan Garodnick & Corey Johnson