

Come out, meet your neighbors and be the first to see the future of the Upper West Side!

Join us as we celebrate the first anniversary of the Upper West Side Streets Renaissance in style – by releasing the brand new Livable Streets Blueprint for the UWS!

This community-created plan is a roadmap to a greener, healthier Upper West Side, and features designs for safer streets, better sidewalks, a world-class bicycle network, and less noise and air pollution.

when

Thursday, November 13th 2008

6:30-8:30

Doors open: 6:30 Presentation: 7:00

where

Public School 87. 160 West 78th Street between Amsterdam and Columbus Avenues

RSVP

RSVP is required

www.uwssr.org (or call 646-873-6020)

Refreshments will be served

Free valet bike parking will be available

Transportation
Alternatives

The UWS Streets Renaissance is a coalition of community groups, elected officials, business leaders, and concerned citizens working to achieve great walking spaces, safer streets, less traffic, safer bike lines and cleaner air on the Upper West Side.