

Serving the Upper West Side

Join us for our 2nd in a series of quarterly community
Business to Business (B2B) Networking Receptions and Monthly Business and Consumer Issues Committee Meetings

Wednesday, February 13, 2013, 6:00-7:30pm
(BCI Committee Meeting following Reception at 7:30pm)

Hosted at
Reebok Sports Club/New York
160 Columbus Ave @ 67th Street, NYC

Michele Parker and George A. Zeppenfeldt-Cestero
Co-Chairs, Business & Consumer Issues Committee (BCI)
Community Board 7 – Manhattan

Keynote Speaker

Mr. Gregg Bishop

Deputy Commissioner, Business Development Division
NYC Department of Small Business Services

Meet and interact with local business operators and non-profits, large and small. In this economy, we need to explore opportunities to help each other survive and grow. Find out about the special promotions being offered at these events by branch offices of large corporations that will be offered to your business and non-profits. Open to all businesses/non-profits; restaurants/bars, retail, home offices and more. Meet and Greet Corporations and Get One-Stop Advice, Services and Special Promotions from:

Aetna, Chase, Empire Blue Cross/Blue Shield, MetLife, TD Bank, Verizon Wireless small retail businesses and others

We are grateful to the following organizations for their in-kind support of this Community Board 7-Manhattan event
Reebok Sports Club/NY, 67 Wine, Casa de Vinos and the Sidewalk Cafe

RSVP required, please click here to RSVP for the CB7 B2B event or <http://goo.gl/viJcC>

250 West 87th Street New York, NY 10024-2706
Phone: (212) 362-4008 Fax:(212) 595-9317
Web site: nyc.gov/mcb7 e-mail address: office@cb7.org