Who We Are...

Community Education Councils (CECs) are education policy advisory bodies responsible for reviewing and evaluating schools' instructional programs, approving zoning lines, and advising the Chancellor.

Community Education Councils (CECs) play an essential role in shaping education policies for the New York City public schools.

Community Education Council (CEC) members provide hands-on leadership and support for public schools within Community School District Five.

Community Education Council (CEC) members hold meetings every month with the superintendent and public at-large to discuss the current state of the schools in the district.

Our Public Session meetings are held on the second Thursday of the month at 6:30 PM, and our Business Session meetings are held at 7:30 PM. All meetings are held at the Harlem Technology Center located within PS 125 at 425 West 123rd Street—6th Floor, New York, NY 10027.
