DEP

Environmental Protection Commissioner Cas Holloway launched the Strategy 2011-2014, strategic plan that lays out 100 distinct initiatives to make DEP the safest, most efficient, cost-effective, and transparent water utility in the nation. Each initiative directly advances one of DEP's core functions: serving nine million water customers; supplying and treating more than one billion gallons of water every day; making cost-effective infrastructure investments; and achieving a sustainable quality of life for all New Yorkers. The new plan, the product of nearly one year of analysis and outreach, builds on PlaNYC, Mayor Bloomberg's sustainability blueprint for New York City. From improving harbor water quality to harnessing clean renewable energy, Strategy 2011-2014 includes bold and achievable initiatives that will improve New Yorkers' quality of life — at a price they can afford. The plan will guide DEP's investments and operations over the next four years, and DEP will publish an annual report card on the progress of each initiative.

ConEdison's Green Team

ConEdison wants to help you make your home and/or apartment more energy efficient, and help you lower your energy usage by offering a variety of energy efficiency programs for homes and businesses. From free equipment upgrades to rebates, recycling programs that pay, and personalized energy saving strategies, we have something for everyone.

Low Cost Home Energy Survey

For $50, the Green Team will visit your 1 to 4 family home to recommend ways to save money and use less energy. While there, they will install free energy-saving products such as compact fluorescent bulbs and smart power strips.
