

October, 2012 - District Manager's Report

DSC Meeting Highlights:

FDNY

Reported overloaded electrical outlets are one of the major causes of residential fire deaths. Two-thirds of all electrical fires begin in plugs or cords on appliances such as refrigerators, air conditioners or lamps. Most electrical fires can be prevented take the proper safety measures and regularly check your electrical appliances, cores and outlets.

Fire Safety education classes available to block and tenant associations upon requests, for further info. please contact the FDNY Fire Safety Education Unit & FDNY Office of Public information at www.nyc.gov/fdny or www.fdneyfoundation.org.

26th Pct. (see Stats)

Holding educational seminars to increase public awareness on how to protect themselves and personal property

30th Pct. (see Stats)

Distributing Flyers and pamphlets on how to secure security gates and other pointers on how to keep your home/apartment secure;

Tips on how to ruin a pickpocket's/con artists day:

- Be alert and aware of your surroundings at all times. Criminals often target people who are distracted;
- Be on guard if you are approached by a stranger who claims to have just found an envelope of money. This is the start of a confidence crime and you are the target.
- Be aware that the precinct is experiencing an increase in burglaries, and are asking you to secure all windows, especially the fire escape windows.

PSA-6 reported the following:

Sky watch stationed at Grant Houses 430 W 125th Street with cameras
225 verticals patrols conducted between Manhattanville and Grant Houses

Transit District #3

Issued hand outs explaining cell phones and electronic devices are prime targets for thieves and reminded straphangers to safeguard valuables and be aware at all times while riding the MTA

Patrol Borough Manhattan North (see Stats)

Reported deployment is on the rise due to parades and other special events
