DSC Meeting Highlights (10/9/13):

FDNY (see Stats)

FDNY Reported Semi-Annual hydrant inspections are underway;

FDNY Fire Safety Education on Residential Apartment Building – There are special areas of concern when it comes to fire safety in apartment buildings. Families in apartment buildings live close together; affecting each other's risks associated with fire. While the chances of a fire starting in an apartment are about the same as in a private home, apartment fires have the potential to spread fire, heat and smoke throughout the building affecting the safety of all occupants. The following Safety Bullets were discussed:

- Know your Exits
- Keep your Exits Clear and Work;
- Security vs. Fire Safety
- Know your way out

(3)

Fireproof does not mean that the building is immune to fire, while the structural components may not catch on fire; the contents will and generate life threatening heat and smoke. Generally speaking, in a fireproof building the fire and smoke will be contained to the portion of the building (apartment) where the fire has started.

Over 250 illegal guns sold in undercover NYPD investigation: 19 indicted

Firearms transported from North and South Carolina for sale in New York City

New York City Special Narcotics Prosecutor BRIDGET G. BRENNAN, New York City Police Commissioner RAYMOND W. KELLY, New York City Mayor MICHAEL R. BLOOMBERG, Manhattan District Attorney CYRUS R. VANCE, Jr., Kings County District Attorney CHARLES J. HYNES, Chief of Police RONNIE YARBOROUGH, of the Sanford, N.C. Police Department, and Chief of Police CHRIS WATTS, of the Rock Hill, S.C. Police Department, announced today the indictment and arrest of 19 members of two loosely-organized gun trafficking groups that illegally funneled firearms from North and South Carolina into New York City, where the black market guns fetch at least three times their original price. The undercover investigation by the New York City Police Department's (NYPD) Firearms Investigation Unit (FIU) resulted in 254 guns being removed from the streets of New York City.

A 552-count indictment filed by the Office of the Special Narcotics Prosecutor centers on 208 guns sold for approximately $160,000 over the past year. The 19 defendants face numerous counts of Conspiracy, Criminal Sale of a Firearm, Criminal Possession of a Weapon and other crimes. Among those charged are WALTER WALKER, a resident of Sanford, N.C., and EARL CAMPBELL, a resident of Rock Hill, S.C., who personally transported guns to New York City. These two defendants operated independently of one another, but utilized similar methods and shared a common Brooklyn-based broker, OMOLE ADEDJI, who negotiated sales to prospective firearms purchasers in New York City.

A long-term wiretap investigation, which evolved from a narcotics case, utilized an undercover NYPD FIU detective, who met with the defendants on more than 45 occasions for gun purchases. Sales charged in the indictment totaled $157,625, with the majority of the transactions involving multiple weapons.

Between September 2012 and July 2013, both WALKER and CAMPBELL made numerous trips between their home states and New York City, personally transporting as many as 14 illegal firearms at a time in their luggage on trips north. Their preferred mode of travel was bus lines operating in the vicinity of Manhattan's Chinatown. Sales generally took place within hours of WALKER or CAMPBELL arriving in New York with a load of guns.

Singin' Wid A Sword In Ma Hand:

An Underground Railroad Love Story

October 26, 2013
2 p.m. – 3 p.m.
George Bruce Branch
518 West 125th Street
New York, NY 10027

"Singin' Wid A Sword In Ma Hand" is a musical docudrama created by actor, singer, historian, writer and citizen of Harlem USA, Vienna Carroll. A young woman tells her story of love, family and escape to freedom on the Underground Railroad, interweaving the spirituals as escape songs, and showing a surprising range of conductors.

Based upon historical research, this docudrama uses actual characters, sites, and stories of the Underground Railroad from Vienna's hometown of York, PA. We see Black activists essential to the success of the Underground Railroad and the crucial role of the Black church in Underground Railroad activity. We discover the existence of Blacks living freely in the southern states and of Maroon societies who raid plantations.

This program is suitable for Adults and Teens (12-18 years old)

Simply put, I found the experience sensational and the instructors knowledgeable and easy to communicate with in the classroom. Through this program, I gained a renewed confidence in my academic skills, intellect and a sense of self accomplishment. Thank you once again for the opportunity and all your help throughout the six week period.
