The street will remain closed thru Thursday October 31st, 2013 for construction activities. The purpose of the street closure is to facilitate the installation of new infrastructure for Columbia University. The street closure has been approved by DOT, and all NYC-DOT stipulations will be followed at all times. For further info. or to register a complaint please contact 311.

MTA New York City Transit's FASTRACK 2013 initiative is coming to the Lexington Avenue (4,5,6) line, affecting stations between 125th and Grand Central-42nd Street. For four consecutive weeknights, from Monday, September 9 to Friday September 13th, the MTA will shut down service on this line segment between 10p.m. and 5a.m. to pursue our new intensified approach to performing essential maintenance work.

During the FASTRACK work on this segment of the Lexington Avenue line, service will operate as follows:

- 4, 5, and 6 trains will skip the 116th, 110th, 103rd, 96th, 77th, 68th, and 51st Street stations.

During the shutdowns for this FASTRACK operation, customers can expect some added travel time. Travel alternatives include:

- Using M101 LIMITED buses for local service between 125th and Grand Central-42 St.:
  - ✓ Downtown buses run on Lexington Ave.
  - ✓ Uptown buses run on 3rd Ave.

The Northern Manhattan Improvement Corporation (NMIC) is pleased to announce the availability of funds for employment and training services for Food Stamp applicants and recipients. The Food Stamp Employment and Training program (FSET) is designed to provide vocational training, ESOL, GED, adult basic education classes, followed by employment services.

NMIC offers a Building Maintenance & Weatherization Training as well as referral for Home Health Aide. Citizens' Committee for Children (CCC) of New York reported every Fall and Spring, 25 high school students from throughout all five borough of New York City participate in CCC's YouthAction Community Leadership Course (YCLC) – an after-school program for High School students interested in learning the tools of effective advocacy and how to make positive changes in their communities.

The YCLC is a FREE 8-week course for high school students, which meets on Monday afternoons from 4-7p.m. at CCC's office located at 105 E. 22nd Street in Manhattan. (see Flyer)

DOT

DOT reported after receiving constituent request, a speed hump on West 141st Street between Convent Avenue and Hamilton Terrace has been approved. A copy of our approval letter is attached. Also CB resolution of support is not required for streets adjacent to schools.

The 148th Street Bridge Rehabilitation project has begun (September 16th) and will take place for several weeks. The rehabilitation will entail a complete closure of the 148th Street Pedestrian Bridge over Amtrak and is expected to be closed through December 31st. Because the project may present an inconvenience to the community, the Department of Transportation Division of Bridges is preparing an advisory notice for the Community Board; in addition DOT is working with the Parks Dept. to coordinate any issues regarding this closure.

Morningside Avenue Plan DOT is proposing Traffic Safety Improvements for Morningside Avenue to reduce speeding and improve safety along the corridor. The improvements will include the following:

- Reduce travel lanes from four to three lanes, one in each direction with left-turn lanes as needed between W. 116th and W. 126th Streets.
- Construct green pedestrian islands on Morningside Ave. at W. 123rd Street, W. 120th Street, W. 118th and W. 117th Street;
- Extend concrete curb on existing Green Street at Morningside Ave. & Hancock Place;
- Extend NE curb with colored coating at intersection of Morningside Ave. Hancock Place;
- Extend SE curb with colored coating at intersection of Morningside Ave. and W. 126th Street;

- Extend curb on Morningside and W. 118th and 120th Street;
- Add stop sign on Morningside and W. 118th;
- Add Pedestrian signal and new crosswalk at Hancock Place

HRA – Reported on a free new online resource to help Public Assistance applicants and recipients apply and prepare for Administrative Fair Hearings. The New York LawHelp Consortium, under the auspices of Legal Services NYC and in collaboration with Legal Assistance of Western New York, Inc., has developed an interactive tool to help unrepresented Appellants understand the fair hearing process.

The Public Benefits Fair Hearing program was designed by a team of Public Benefits experts state-wide. It is written in plain language and is available in both English and Spanish. Users answer short questions in the online program and are given customized information. The Q&A style format leads the user not only through asking for a fair hearing in a timely fashion, but also how to prepare for and participate in the fair hearing itself. (see Flyer)

Human Rights Commission – Reported the Fair Business Practice is committed to helping businesses succeed including your efforts to recover and rebuild from Hurricane Sandy. A number of city agencies have programs to help you with financing, free legal advice; developing business opportunities recruiting employees, and securing permits and licenses. (see attached "Fair Business Practice" Flyer).

September is National Preparedness Month – get prepared, get involved; Manhattan Community Board No. 10, and Community Emergency Response Team (CERT) North presents: "Harlem Meet your CERT"- Saturday, September 21, 2012, 11a.m. – 1p.m., at St. Marks United Methodist Church, 49-55 Edgecombe Ave @W. 137th Street & St. Nicholas Ave. (see Flyer)

CITIZENS' COMMITTEE for CHILDREN
OF NEW YORK INC

YouthAction NYC

Dear School and/or Community Leader:

Citizens' Committee for Children's (CCC) fall 2013 YouthAction NYC Community Leadership Course (YCLC) begins October 21st, 2013, and I am writing to encourage you to inform your students about this unique opportunity and to identify interested applicants as soon as possible. The application deadline is October 2nd, 2013.

CCC is a multi-issue child advocacy organization that seeks to ensure that every child is healthy, housed, educated, and safe. Every fall and spring, 25 high school students from throughout all five boroughs of New York City participate in CCC's YouthAction Community Leadership Course (YCLC)—an after-school program for high school students interested in learning the tools of effective advocacy and how to make positive changes in their communities.

Ideal YCLC applicants are:

- High school freshmen, sophomores, and juniors;
- Passionate about long-term volunteerism and advocacy (and who may remain active within YouthAction for several semesters);
- Comfortable taking risks;
- Eager to engage others, from high school peers to community leaders;
- Excited about leadership development; and
- Interested in local government and public policy.

Please note the following important details about the fall 2013 YCLC:

- Ten sessions will be held Monday afternoons from October 21st through December 16th
- All sessions run from 4pm to 7pm and students are expected to arrive on time.
- Community service credit is available for students' active and regular participation (students who miss more than 2 sessions are not eligible for community service credits).
- The application deadline is Wednesday, October 4th, 2013.
- Completed enrollment forms and permission slips may be returned by fax to YouthAction NYC at (212) 979-5063; e-mail to ljankstrom@cccnewyork.org or; mail to CCC YouthAction NYC, 105 East 22nd Street, 7th Floor, New York, NY 10010 as soon as possible.

Attached please find four documents to distribute: an application and permission slip (both to be completed by the applicant and his/her parent/guardian); a letter to applicants and parent(s)/guardian(s); and a flyer. Additionally, application materials may be downloaded from CCC's website at www.cccnewyork.org. Please display the flyer and accompanying documents where they will be visible to interested applicants. Finally, you may call 212-673-1800 x 20 with any unanswered questions. I am extremely excited to meet and work with you and your students this fall and look forward to hearing from you soon.

Sincerely,

Jennifer March-Joly

"The YouthAction Community Leadership Course at Citizens' Committee for Children was an experience that I will never forget. It changed the way I see myself and the community around me. I no longer view myself as someone insignificant to change or as someone who has no say in how my community is run. This course gave me my voice." –Coryn Colon, Spring 2012 YCLC graduate

YOUTHACTION COMMUNITY LEADERSHIP COURSE

Are you a high school student who wants to learn how to be an effective advocate for yourself, your school, and your community?

Then Join CCC's YouthAction Community Leadership Course!

Every fall and spring, 25 high school students from throughout all five boroughs of New York City participate in CCC's YouthAction Community Leadership Course (YCLC)—an after-school program for high school students interested in learning the tools of effective advocacy and how to make positive changes in their communities.

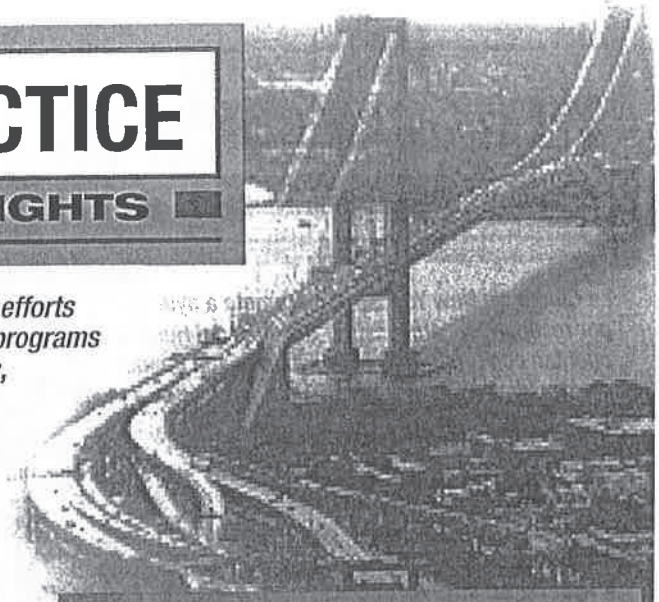
FAIR BUSINESS PRACTICE

NYC COMMISSION ON HUMAN RIGHTS



New York City is committed to helping your business succeed – including your efforts to recover and rebuild from Hurricane Sandy. A number of city agencies have programs to help you with financing, free legal advice, developing business opportunities, recruiting employees, and securing permits and licenses.

Just call 311 for a referral.

*However, often overlooked are issues related to Fair Business Practice:

- hiring and employee relations;
- customer service;
- accommodating your place of business for disabled people.

These issues could lead an employee or customer to file a complaint against you with the NYC Commission on Human Rights.

This flyer flags many of these areas and invites you to contact us for further information to help you avoid any problems in your business.

As employers, you should be aware that it is illegal in NYC to:

- Post employment ads or make statements during interviews indicating preference for applicants based on race, age, creed, color, marital or partnership status, gender (including gender identity), sexual orientation, national origin, or disability;
- Use an individual's unemployment as a reason not to hire, or post ads with a preference for employed individuals unless a significant job-related reason exists;
- Refuse a reasonable accommodation for an employee practicing their religious beliefs;
- Refuse a reasonable accommodation for a disabled employee;
- Use an applicant or employee's conviction record to not hire or advance them unless their offense is directly job-related;
- Pay employees doing the same work different salaries or offer opportunities based on their protected class;
- Engage in or allow sexual harassment in the workplace;
- Refuse a reasonable accommodation for an employee who is a victim of domestic violence, stalking, or sex offenses;
- Ask an applicant if they have ever been arrested;
- Fire a pregnant woman or not provide a reasonable accommodation during her pregnancy.

If you would like a presentation on any of the above topics, please contact the NYC Commission on Human Rights.

A licensed business in NYC is a public accommodation.

The NYC Human Rights Law guarantees your customers equal rights to the goods, services, facilities, privileges, and advantages of your business without regard to their actual or perceived protected class.

Race	Sexual Orientation
Creed	Alienage/Citizenship status
Disability	Gender (including gender identity)
Color	Partnership status
Marital status	National Origin
