Committee 4-0-0

26th Precinct: Capt. Lawrence Bland

Did not have the stats, but noted that crime down by four reports: 902-898

More important is the overall decrease

3 year; down 4.9%

11 year down 67.3%

Arrests were identical with last year.

Summons:

Parking: 37,042

Moving violations: 11,120

Qual of life: 4,222

Overall 1,100 more than last year.

Plan to focus on domestic violence, grand larceny; in Spring will pay more attention to graffiti. Will concentrate on double parking [commercial along the Bway/Amsterdam corridors].

30th Precinct: Sgt. Adorno:

Stats are down for the first month on the seven majors; overall numbers about even.
Plan to focus on noise complaints and graffiti [there are monetary awards for convictions]

PSA 6: Lt Fox

Crime is down 20% this year and our activity is up.
Arrests +106%
Quality of life summons +256%

New Business

Joan Levine: brought community dissatisfaction with 125th IRT escalators to Board.
Also noted the presence of # M11 busses parked at 124-5 northbound creating traffic hazzard.

There being no further business, the meeting adjourned at 8:00 PM

Respectfully submitted
