Turn the page to learn more about the new NYC life, and visit nyc.gov/media for a full schedule of NYC life programming.

9:00 pm: For two hours every Monday, NYC life showcases original programming focusing on arts, culture, and the City as well as special premieres. In the coming months we'll also be premiering content from NYC life's educational partners. Among the first specials to air is a special hour-long edition Blueprint | New York City | Parks, which chronicles the history of the City's flagship parks in each borough.

Monday
Arts, Culture & Special Presentations

9:00 pm: HISTORY™ presents City-centric documentaries that cover everything from Modern Marvels of architecture, like the Chrysler Building and the George Washington Bridge, to Sandhogs, about the hard-working men who build the tunnels under New York City.

10:00 pm: Blueprint | New York City takes viewers in and around the City's most striking architectural examples that grab the attention of visitors and native New Yorkers alike.

Tuesday
NYC History

6-7

10:30 pm: Secrets of New York uncovers the truth behind the City's most enduring mysteries as host Kelly Choi scales the heights of the tallest skyscrapers and descends into the depths of the oldest tunnels.

9:00 pm: Bronx Flavor with Baron Ambrosia chronicles the Baron's mission to unveil the cultural diversity of the Bronx and its cuisine. Each episode includes a comedic plot, interviews with restaurant owners and background information about the food's history and culture.

9:30 pm: New York Originals, with host Jamie McDonald, explores classic one-of-a-kind shops and mom-and-pop businesses that have stood the test of time.

10:00 pm: Under the Pink Carpet is the only television series to report on LGBT arts, culture and entertainment in the City. Host Tony Sawicki and special correspondent Clover Honey highlight music, theatre, film, television, nightlife, sports, and other events of interest to the gay community.
