

Human/Client Services DOP Annual Plan FY' 12

Part I: Cover Sheet

List each program category included on the attached spreadsheet, and describe as follows:

Program Name	Program Description	Total # Contracts Per Program	Authorized $ Value for Program	Month/Year of Next RFP Issuance (if applicable)
Juvenile Home Placement Services	The Juvenile Home Placement Program provides intense, family-focused, community-based alternatives to placement programs for juveniles in all five boroughs from the family court.	1	$3,309,153 annually	Winter 2011
Young Adult Justice Program	The Young Adult Justice Program is a new collaboration between the New York City Department of Probation (DOP) and the Center for Economic Opportunity (CEO) to provide programming for young adults involved in the criminal justice system. The two proposed competitions within this RFP are the Young Adult Justice Scholars program, which focuses mainly on educational gains, with multiple educational tracks, and uses career exploration to introduce participants to potential career fields, and the Young Adult Justice Community program, which is a more flexible model that adapts to the current status of each participant, whether in need of education or employment services, and uses the participants' community as an integral component of the programming.	13	$3.95 million annually	7//2011
