

Bernie Stote

A self-taught painter and sculptor, Bernard Stote works primarily in mixed media, watercolor, and gouache, and in his pieces he seeks to evoke a sense of constant movement while conveying both spiritual and spatial themes. He began working with Fountain Gallery as a community volunteer in 2004 and became a member of Fountain House in 2006. His artwork has been shown at venues in New York and Pennsylvania. Bernard has extensive experience in retail design and corporate finance and has designed and managed several innovative holiday sale events at Fountain Gallery, where he also curated two group exhibitions. He currently manages and curates exhibitions for Gallery at New World Stages in New York City.

Finding the Way to Balance, 2010 Mixed media sculpture Full installation at the John F. Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts
Finding the Way to Balance – detail of Manic, 2010 Mixed media sculpture
TNJ Above, 2006 Mixed media with gold leaf 24" x 36"
01 Isometric Series, 2011 Acrylic on paper 20" x 30"
TNJ Unveiled, 2006 Mixed media with gold leaf 84" x 48"	