

The Mayor's Office for People with Disabilities is delighted to welcome Kleo King as our new General Council and Deputy Commissioner.

Kleo King has worked in the accessibility field for over twenty-seven years as a legal advisor and attorney primarily in the areas of housing, transportation and access to public accommodations. She is also active in the regulatory process involving the rights of people with disabilities.

Kleo served as the Vice-Chair of the American Bar Association's Committee on Delivery of Legal Services to the Disabled and as a member of the Committee's Planning Board. She was an active member of the New York City Bar Association's Committee on Legal Issues Affecting People with Disabilities and served as Chairperson for three years. Kleo served as a member of the United States Access Board's Courthouse Access Advisory Committee and a member of Access Board's Durable Medical Equipment Advisory Committee.

Kleo received her law degree from George Mason University School of Law and is admitted to the Virginia and New York State Bars. She is a member of the American Bar Association, the New York State Bar Association, the Association of the Bar of the City of New York, and the Virginia Bar Association. She has contributed to several publications, including the Lawyers Cooperative Publishing's Americans with Disabilities Practice and Compliance Manual; Representing People with Disabilities, published by the New York State Bar Association; and Rights of People with Disabilities, published by the Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

