NYCHA AND THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION ANNOUNCE ANNUAL FREE SUMMER MEALS PROGRAM FOR NEW YORK CITY SCHOOL CHILDREN

Free Breakfast and Lunch will be Offered at 82 NYCHA Sites Throughout the Five Boroughs

The New York City Housing Authority (NYCHA) and the New York City Department of Education have announced today the annual Summer Meals Program providing free breakfast and lunch for New York City children ages 18 and younger will run from Wednesday, July 8, through Friday, August 28 at 82 NYCHA sites throughout the five boroughs. NYCHA has been providing free summer meals at dozens of its sites for the past two years.

"The combination of free healthful and nutritious meals served in familiar surroundings for NYCHA children can't be beat," said NYCHA Chairman John B. Rhea. "On top of this are the many summer programs for NYCHA's youth offered at our community centers," he added. Households with children under the age of 18 make up 30.8% of all NYCHA families.

"In these tough economic times, it's great to know that the City has a food program close to where children live and play," Chief Executive of School Support Services, Eric Goldstein said. "Our goal is to help reach the City's youngsters and provide them with nutritious meals as we do during the school year."

Children do not need to be enrolled in summer school to participate in the program, no application is required, and meals are available at any of the open sites, regardless of where a child lives. Breakfast is served from 9:00 a.m. to 10:00 a.m., and lunch is served from noon to 1:00 p.m. A list of all the sites is attached.

This summer's menu has many long-time favorites such as pancakes, scrambled eggs, bagels with cream cheese, yogurt, tacos, BBQ roasted chicken, corner-style pizza, crunchy carrots, "confetti" corn salad, chicken tenders salad and a cold vegetable stew with zucchini, corn, tomato and basil. All the meals provided are low in fat, low in sodium and are without artificial colors or sweeteners.

The Department of Education's Summer Meals Program, which is administered by the Office of SchoolFood, has been operating for more than 30 years and provides millions of meals each summer. Families can find their nearest open site where meals are served by calling 311.
