NYC TV Launches Video Blog, "Inside Secrets"

November 9, 2007 - NYC TV recently launched the station's latest video blog, "Inside Secrets," a revealing look behind the scenes of the NYC TV-produced original series, "Secrets of New York." The video blog features deleted scenes, outtakes, interviews with mystery guests, behind-the-scenes looks at the show's special effects, and more. "Secrets of New York" is available at www.nyc.gov/insidesecrets and for syndication across the Web.

"Secrets of New York" is a six-time New York Emmy award winning program produced by NYC TV. Hosted by New York Emmy-nominated local television personality Kelly Choi, the half-hour program has emerged as NYC TV's highest-rated original series and is a "Made in NY" production.

Shot in a fast-paced, graphically-intense documentary style, the series explores little-known stories or unearths long-forgotten remnants of New York City's past. Created by Arick Wierson, the show was picked up by PBS stations and is now distributed in over a hundred markets nationwide and is available on NYC TV On-Demand at www.nyc.gov/nyctvod.

NYC TV is the official network of the City of New York.
