

MULTIPLATFORM CONTENT NEWS

The City of New York has gone broadband. Mayor Bloomberg unveiled NYC TV On-Demand, a creation of public-owned NYC TV showcasing original programming produced by the city entity. The player features over 500 condensed versions of shows like Secrets of New York and includes a cool search function allowing users to browse by topic, borough or activity.