What to do if you are being stalked?

If you have an Order of Protection, make several copies, and carry a copy with you at all times. Save any packages, letters, messages, or gifts from the stalker. Inform people you know that you are being stalked so that the stalker cannot get information about you from them. If you have a picture of the stalker, make copies and give them to people you know at the places you frequent.

WHAT IS STALKING?

Stalking involves intentional and repeated actions that place an individual in reasonable fear for his or her safety. Stalking is a course of conduct used to maintain contact with, or exercise power and control over another individual. Stalking is a crime, and you can get help.

• NYS Crime/Family Offense - Stalking is committed when a person:

- Intentionally,
- For no legitimate purpose,
- Engages in a course of conduct,
- Directed at a specific person, and
- Knows or reasonably should know that such conduct is likely to, or does, cause a particular type of fear or harm

Simply stated, whatever intentional actions he or she does with the purpose of putting you in fear can be considered stalking.

You are being stalked if someone is:

- Repeatedly following or spying on you
- Repeatedly calling your home and/or work
- Repeatedly sending unwanted e-mails, letters, faxes, etc.
- Leaving unwanted gifts or items for you
- Vandalizing or damaging your property
- Threatening you or someone close to you
- Repeatedly showing up for no legitimate purpose at places you go to

We encourage victims to document all incidents of possible stalking. This includes filing a police report. Your local domestic violence prevention officer is available to help.

Keep a log of incidents including the date, time, what happened, and the names of any witnesses. Keep e-mails, letters, faxes, items left for you, etc. Even if you decide not to pursue prosecution now, you may change your mind in the future. Documentation of every incident makes for a stronger case.
