

Super Bowl XLVII

How NYPD mobilized for the first New York/New Jersey cold weather, open-air Super Bowl.

With approximately 8.5 million residents who speak more than 800 languages, New York City is the most densely populated major city in the United States.

Add one of the largest media and sporting events in the world, and you have plenty of policing to do.

Super Bowl Boulevard

- Field Goal Kick
Fans got an opportunity to boot a football through the goalposts.
- Vince Lombardi Trophy
Photos taken with the Championship trophy.
- NYC & Company Welcome Center
Tourism professionals offered tips on all there was to see and do in the five boroughs.
- Super Bowl XLVIII Roman Numerals
Photo opportunities in front of the oversize "XLVIII" Roman numerals commemorating the game.
- Toboggan Run
60-foot wintry slide down the center of Broadway.
- Autograph and Concert Stage
Free autograph sessions with current and former NFL players, and daily concerts.

Super Bowl Week Events (citywide)

There were 450,000 estimated visitors to the New York City area for the Super Bowl and related events, with 83,000 attending the game.

Beacon Theatre
VH1 Concert series 1/30 TLC

Javits Center
MRKET Vanguard Gallery 1/26-1/28
NY NOW 2/1-2/6
Gift show with 35,000 buyers from 85 countries.

Madison Square Garden
Music Concert 1/27 Billy Joel
NBA 1/28 Knicks/Celtics
Music Concert 1/29 Keith Urban
NBA 1/30 Knicks/Cavs
NHL 1/31 Rangers/Islanders
NCAA 2/1 St.John's/Marquette
NBA 2/1 Knicks/Heat

ESPN: The Party
Pier 36, South St.

St. George Theatre
VH1 Concert series 1/31 Goo Goo Dolls

Lehman College
VH1 Concert series 1/28 Janelle Mon e

Museum of Natural History
AMNH Super Bowl Party

Chinatown
Chinese New Year Parade 1/29

Queens College
VH1 Concert series 1/27 Rapper J. Cole

Brooklyn Bowl
VH1 Concert series 1/29 Fall Out Boy

Barclays
NBA 1/27 Nets/Raptors
Championship Boxing 1/30 Ortiz/Collazo
NBA 1/31 Nets/Thunder
Music Concert 2/1 Red Hot Chili Peppers

Brooklyn Bowl
VH1 Concert series 1/29 Fall Out Boy

1200 Private jets expected in local airspace during Super Bowl week

Escorts from Manhattan to New Jersey via the Lincoln Tunnel, including more than 800 buses.

The NYPD began the escort and PAPD took over at the tunnel entrance.