NEW YORK CITY MUNICIPAL WATER FINANCE AUTHORITY ANNOUNCES SUCCESSFUL SALE OF $400 MILLION OF NEW MONEY BONDS

The New York City Municipal Water Finance Authority ("NYW") announced the successful sale of $400 million of second resolution, fixed-rate, tax-exempt new money bonds.

The financing was sold via negotiated sale yesterday with Ramirez & Co., Inc. serving as book-running senior manager on the transaction. During the one-day retail order period, NYW received $106 million of retail orders. Yields at final pricing ranged from 1.22% in the 2018 maturity to 3.94% in the 2045 maturity. Barclays Capital, Jefferies & Company, Morgan Keegan, M.R. Beal & Company served as co-senior managers on the transaction.

Fitch Ratings rates NYW's second resolution bonds at AA+. Moody's Investors Service rates NYW's second resolution bonds at Aa2. Standard & Poor's rates NYW's second resolution bonds at AA+.
