

WE ARE NEW YORK'S LAW SCHOOL

New York Law School's ADR Skills Program Presents

Early Conflict Intervention Within NYC Agencies

DATE: Thursday, April 14, 2016

TIME: 8:00 a.m. – 9:20 a.m. (Light breakfast served from 7:30 a.m.)

PLACE: New York Law School, Events Center (Room W201)
185 West Broadway, New York, NY

RSVP: www.nyls.edu/ADREarlyConflict

CLE: 1.5 credits in Professional Practice. Transitional and Non-Transitional.

CLE Financial Aid Policy: www.nyls.edu/cletuitionassistance

Judge Raymond Kramer of the Office of Administrative Trials and Hearings (OATH) joins his colleagues from several municipal agencies to explain and discuss a new initiative offering early intervention workplace conflict mediation and conflict resolution services to all City agencies and employees in an effort to improve workplace comity and effectiveness and avoid costly, adversarial, and time and resource intensive administrative proceedings.