PROJECT H.E.A.L. (Hospital Emergency Assistance Link)

More than 2,200 patients disclosed domestic violence and spoke to social workers in 2005.

Domestic Violence Coordinators at all 11 City public hospitals are available to assist victims and connect them with social and legal services. Digital cameras are available to document injuries.

Victims can complete a petition for a Family Court Order of Protection before leaving the hospital.

At monthly legal clinics, victims can obtain legal assistance with housing, immigration and family law issues.

LANGUAGE LINE PROGRAM*

More than 2,900 calls in over 40 languages were made since March 2004; all NYC police precincts have direct, instant access to language interpreters in over 150 languages 24 hours a day, so victims who do not speak English can now tell their stories to the police and get the help they need.

* Statistics provided by the Mayor's Office to Combat Domestic Violence

If you or someone you know is in an abusive relationship, call NYC's 24-hour Domestic Violence Hotline at 1-800-621-HOPE(4673) TTY: 1-800-810-7444 or 3-1-1 for general City services information.

Callers can receive immediate assistance including crisis counseling, safety planning and referrals.
