

Ready NY Kids Program Presenter

Division/Unit: External Affairs – Ready New York	Supervisor: RNY Program Manager
Number of Presenters: 5	Preferred Education Level: Undergraduate or graduate
Background on Project: As part of the City's Ready New York preparedness campaign, the Ready New York for Kids program is designed to empower and educate children about the importance of planning and preparing for emergencies. The program works in partnership with the Department of Education and other partners (Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Dept. of Youth and Community Development, Parks Dept., etc.) to bring preparedness into the classroom and other venues by conducting assemblies and workshops. We are seeking college students to assist with community outreach efforts with a focus on public speaking. Training will be provided. Presenters will be compensated $50 per school visit. For more information on the Ready New York Program, go to www.nyc.gov/readyny
Description of Project/Intern Responsibilities: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Provide emergency preparedness presentations to children attending public/private schools, summer camps and after school programs. (assemblies & workshops)• Assist with program evaluation and development of new evaluation tools.• Interns will need to undergo a background check and will need to be fingerprinted.
Requirements/Special Skills Needed: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Excellent written and verbal skills• Articulate and highly motivated• Good interpersonal skills• Experience working with children• Interest in public education (elementary school & middle school)• Interest in working with all communities within New York City.• Foreign language a plus, but is not required• Presenters will attend in school presentations throughout the five boroughs. Transportation expenses will not be reimbursed.• Background check required
Interested Applicants: E-mail resume and cover letter to: jobs@oem.nyc.gov Only those candidates under consideration will be contacted	