DEPARTMENT OF CITY PLANNING

Indicator name:	Planning information and policy analysis initiatives presented to the public
Description:	Projects informing the public of significant trends, procedures and/or policies, in the form of written reports, website postings, and/or public presentations.
Source:	Records maintained by DCP's Planning Coordination Division.
Indicator name:	Emails sent to an agency (through NYC.gov or a publicized agency email address)
Description:	The number of emails sent to an agency through NYC.gov or to a publicly disclosed email address (e.g., customerservice@agency.nyc.gov).
Source:	Records maintained by the Executive Office.
Indicator name:	Emails responded to in 14 days (%)
Description:	The percentage of emails answered in 14 calendar days or less. Responses should be substantive and adequately address the question/issue raised by the customer. A simple acknowledgement is not considered an adequate response. However, for more complex inquiries that require research and action on the part of the agency, an acknowledgement which includes a description of the next step (either on the agency's behalf, or the customer's), as well as an estimated time frame for completion, is considered acceptable and can be reported as part of the 14 day response. Agencies must internally track the additional time until a customer has a complete and full response.
