ARRA Funding Source: Transitional Housing Assistance Grants for Victims of Domestic Violence, Dating Violence, Stalking, or Sexual Assault

Funding Source Description:

Grants under this program support initiatives to provide assistance to individuals who are homeless or in need of transitional housing or other housing assistance as a result of fleeing a situation of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking, and for whom emergency shelter services or other crisis intervention services are unavailable or insufficient.

Grant Description: The City of New York Human Resources Administration/Department of Social Services (HRA) has designed a program that will link survivors of domestic violence living in shelter with safe, permanent housing. The NYC Bridge to Renewal Program will be implemented by the HRA Office of Domestic Violence and Emergency Intervention Services who will hire Community Housing Specialists to provide domestic violence shelter staff and residents with neighborhood based linkages to safe, affordable housing.

Grant Amount: $1,631,954

Anticipated benefits: The Bridge to Renewal Program will offer short-term housing assistance, including rental or utilities payments, and community-based support services through collaborating partners that provide counseling, advocacy and other resources to survivors of domestic violence.
