

New York City Comptroller
Scott M. Stringer

SANDY OVERSIGHT UNIT

Share your concerns and questions regarding recovery and relief.

Comptroller Stringer's Hurricane Sandy Oversight Unit is a first-of-its-kind initiative that will hold government accountable in the rebuilding of NYC from Superstorm Sandy. The unit will review and audit Sandy spending and programs, identify areas where performance can be strengthened and fraud and waste can be prevented, and issue recommendations to improve the rebuilding process for communities.
