FIFTEEN YEARS LATER: REMEMBERING 9/11

Borough President Katz joined the United Community Civic Association for its annual 9/11 Candlelight Memorial Ceremony at McManus Memorial Park in Astoria. Community members gathered together to remember and honor the thousands of innocent lives taken on the tragic day 15 years ago.

QUEENS YOUTH REPRESENT AT JUNIOR CARNIVAL

Young ladies of Queens donned their hand-made costumes last week at the West Indian American Day Carnival Association's junior parade and carnival in Brooklyn. The costumes were created earlier this summer during a series of workshops co-hosted by Borough President Katz and the West Indian American Day Carnival Association in honor of Caribbean American Heritage Month.

THANKING VOLUNTEERS OF AVIGDOR'S HELPING HAND

Borough President Katz and Assemblymember Michael Simanowitz (r.) joined the 11th Annual Labor Day Barbecue hosted annually by Bilah and David Moradi (second and third from r.) to salute the dedicated volunteers of Avigdor's Helping Hand. Founded by Judy and Eli Glaser (second and third from l.), the organization provides financial and other assistance to orphans getting married and to individuals who have suffered the loss of a primary breadwinner.

Borough President Katz cordially invites you to a special Homecoming Welcome event to salute and celebrate our Queens Olympians who competed in the Rio 2016 Olympics.

CONFIRMED APPEARANCES INCLUDE:

- Natasha Hastings (Track & Field)
- Dalilah Muhammad (Track & Field)
- Deajah Stevens (Track & Field)
