TLC will soon be issuing a new, combined license called the TLC Driver License

NEW

EXISTING

TLC Licenses to Operate Taxis and FHV's

All of these licenses are valid until the listed expiration date for operating any of the following vehicles:

- ✓ Yellow Taxi
- ✓ Green Taxi
- ✓ Livery
- ✓ Limousine
- ✓ Black Car

All of these licenses now have the same privileges.

All new licenses to operate these vehicles will be TLC Driver Licenses (top).

However, many drivers will continue to use older, valid licenses (bottom three images) until they expire.

As of October 26, 2016, all summonses for these licenses will be written under new Chapter 80 of TLC rules.

These licenses are not valid for operating a paratransit vehicle or commuter van.

To Whom It May Concern,

The NYC Taxi & Limousine Commission (TLC) will soon begin issuing a new, combined license that authorizes holders to operate medallion taxis, For-Hire Vehicles (FHVs), and Street Hail Liveries (SHLs). The new license will be called the TLC Driver License.

Below and attached are important dates and information that are helpful for you to know in case you receive questions from constituents.

Getting a New License Card

Starting September 26, all existing taxi and FHV drivers will become TLC Driver License holders. These drivers will receive the new TLC Driver License card once they renew their license. If you would like a new physical license before your renewal, you can request one be sent to you by mail free of charge through an online system.

Education

Starting October 15, all new drivers will attend TLC Driver Education, the combination of the current Taxi and FHV School courses that includes content necessary for both sectors, such as TPEP/LPEP and pre-arrangement, as well as fare rules for each. TLC Driver Education and exams will be provided in various languages, like current FHV School.

For more information about this new license, you can visit the TLC Driver License page. Please let us know if you have any questions about these upcoming changes. As always, we appreciate your help in getting this information out to licensees.

Sincerely,

TLC External Affairs
