A word from the District Manager

Dear Members and Residents of Queens CB4,

On behalf of Community Board 4, I'd like to extend a congratulatory "welcome" to our new Borough President Melinda Katz, and her new administration.

For the last 12 years, we have had the privilege of being watched over by the Honorable Helen Marshall, a huge advocate for Community Boards, (especially Community Board 4) and we are confident that this tradition will continue in her absence. Congratulations Borough President Katz, and Deputy Borough President Commie. Together, we are sure that you will succeed for years to come.

On behalf of all of us here at CB4, Happy, Safe and Healthy New Year to you all!!

Christian Cassagnol
DM, Queens Community Board 4

110 Precinct Council Meeting

Monday January 20, 2014
VFW Post #150 - 7pm
51-11 108th Street
Corona, NY 11368

Guest Speaker
A Representative from the Fire Safety Education Unit

Police officers from the 110th Precinct will receive awards for their achievements.
Deputy Inspector Ronald D. Leyson CO of the 110th Precinct will also be on hand to discuss crime and quality of life issues.

The Queens Library at 98-30 57th Avenue in Lefrak City will close for several days at the end of business on Friday, January 3, 2014 while it is upgraded to RFID-powered self service check-in and check-out.

It will re-open for public service in approximately one week.
When it re-opens, customers will enjoy fast self-check in and self-check out. Library customers are invited to use any other Queens Library location.

Queens Library thanks Council Member Daniel Dromm for funding this upgrade to Queens Library at Lefrak City.

Mystery Shopper Scam

How does the crime take place?

A potential victim is sent a solicitation via mail, text or email asking the consumer to evaluate their retail experience, products and services at stores. After responding to the ad, the consumer receives an "employment packet" containing a training assignment, a list of products to purchase at various stores and a realistic looking check often for $2,000 to $4,000.

The "training assignment" is for the consumer to deposit the check into the consumer's bank account, purchase the items on the Shopping List and then use a wire transfer service to send the balance of the check's proceeds, after the consumer finishes shopping, to an address outside of the US, often in Canada. The check that the consumer deposited in their account is counterfeit, a fact unbeknownst to the consumer. The balance of money sent to the fraudster is real and the consumer is now out that money and is liable for any and all penalties associated with the bounced check.

Tips

- Don't open or respond to unsolicited e-mails asking you to become a mystery or secret shopper.
- Never deposit a check you receive in the mail from a "mystery shopping" company. No legitimate business will pay in advance and ask you to send a portion of the money back.
- If you have posted your resume to an online job site, verify with the site any job solicitations you receive.
- Don't click on or respond to online ads or Web sites offering free gift cards.
- Remember, if it sounds too good to believe, it is!
