A word from the District Manager

Dear Members and Residents of Queens CB4,
In this mailing, you will receive several lists of upcoming events within the Borough throughout the summer months, many of them right here within CB4, but most importantly...all FREE.
As a reminder while you're out there enjoying everything our borough has to offer, just know that although we are in recess with regards to meetings, the board office itself is still fully functioning. So get out there and enjoy the weather, but please do not hesitate to contact us with any quality of life or community issues you may have.
On behalf of the Chairperson, the Staff of CB4Q, and myself, we'd like to wish you all a happy and healthy summer, and a Happy Father's Day to all the fathers in and outside of our district. Thank you for all you do!
See you all soon!

Christian Cassagnol
District Manager, Queens Community Board 4
