Important Notice

In the early morning hours on FRIDAY, MAY 5TH, the NYC Department of Transportation Division of Bridges will close the single eastbound lane of the Roosevelt Avenue Bridge between 126th Street and Janet Place from 12:01 a.m. to 5:00 a.m. Lanes on the bridge have already been reduced due to Stage 1 construction. As a result, only one lane of westbound traffic will be allowed during this period. Please see the back of this page for a detour map. The closure is necessary to perform maintenance of the construction area and pothole repair.

Anti-Discrimination Training

Wednesday, May 10, 2017
9am-5pm

Queens Library at Corona
38-23 104th Street
Corona, NY 11368

This 6-hour Anti-Discrimination Training will bring together 30-40 service providers, educators and professionals from community organizations and schools servicing young people and families throughout Queens.

CM Ferreras-Copeland and Project Reach seek to establish community and school-based Intergenerational Anti-Discrimination Teams of young people and adults in Queens, trained to address bullying, bias and discrimination.

Drawing from 35 years of anti-discrimination and social justice training, Project Reach will offer a unique opportunity to individuals, organizations and schools to experience its most successful and impactful workshops.

All people who are committed to ending discrimination and fighting for social justice are encouraged to attend.
