A Note To Our Residents:

In the wake of Hurricane Sandy, we've had a substantial amount of reports of individuals claiming to belong to utility companies offering discounts if they are showed a copy of your current bill.

No utility company will EVER come to your house to ask you for your account information.

You are their customer, and they already have this information.

What they are doing is against the law! Call 911 immediately if you experience similar cases.

Furthermore, we've gotten reports of individuals asking for help with finding an address while holding up an unreadable piece of paper urging you to open your door.

PLEASE BE MINDFUL OF THIS!

A note from the District Manager

Dear Members and Residents of Queens CB4,

First and foremost I'd like to take this opportunity to formally thank you, the community for the overwhelming help and support that the Community Board office has received over the past few very difficult months. As a member of the staff, I assure you that your efforts did not go unnoticed, and that we are very appreciative of your support and patience with us as we strived day and night to keep things moving.

On behalf of the staff, We Thank You.

Moving forward however, we are by no means done... Community Board 4 and its surrounding areas have seen a substantial influx of issues as of late; issues that must all be addressed equally, proving that there is no shortage of a need for involvement from Community Board 4Q and its residents.

I am optimistic that the amount of support that we have received in the past from you will only continue through the times to come, and I thank you for choosing me to represent our Community as its new District Manager.

Have a safe and Happy Thanksgiving!!

Christian Cassagnol
District Manager, CB4Q

This is an error.

The entrance is in fact on 48th Avenue.

As a courtesy, we have provided the church with signs that reflect this change, but nonetheless please keep this in mind when going to this location.
