Myrtle Avenue Bridge at 88th Street Over Jackie Robinson Parkway

HB107001A

Queens	Community Board No. 5	March 2015
--------	-----------------------	------------

The New York City Department of Transportation will commence staging for the protective coating of the Myrtle Avenue Bridge over the Jackie Robinson Parkway near 88th Street on or about March 19, 2015. Work at this location will require the closure of one lane on the parkway during platform erection. Work will begin in the eastbound (Queens-bound) direction and then continue in the westbound (Brooklyn-bound) direction. The scope of the work for this bridge includes cleaning and painting structural steel. The anticipated completion date for all work is approximately 6 weeks from start date. This work is weather dependent and may be rescheduled as necessary.

Lane Closures

- One lane at a time on the Jackie Robinson Parkway under Myrtle Avenue.
- All travel lanes re-open to traffic during non-work hours
