

Position: Programmer

The Queens County District Attorney's Office, located in central Queens, is looking for a Programmer to join its software development team.

Responsibilities:

Develop and maintain ASP.net and VB.NET programs.

Develop and maintain SQL code, including queries, stored procedures, and triggers. Design and implement database schemas.

Requirements:

ASP.net/VB.net (at least 2 years).

Strong understanding of OOP

SQL, including Stored Procedures and Triggers

Experience in relational and/or Object Oriented data bases, including the design of well conceived relationships between tables/classes.

Background in XML and Web Services would be a plus.

Background in the Intersystem's Cache' DBMS would be a large plus.

Equal Opportunity Employer. Send email with a cover letter and salary history to:

JobPostingCentQueens@yahoo.com