

As two wars draw to a close, the roughly 1.6 million veterans who have fought for America will soon find themselves in the most civilian of activities -- looking for a job. We are on a mission to help close the gap.

On September 20, 2013
Be A Hero-Hire A Hero will be hosting a Career, Education & Resource Expo at Citi Field, Home of The New York Mets.

Join us in our “Be A Hero-Hire A Hero Movement” in assisting our service members, veterans, military spouses, and wounded warriors to thrive in the civilian world. Over 150 companies will gather at Citi Field, NYC to shake hands and welcome home our nations heroes with career opportunities, internships and apprenticeships.

The Save-A-Suit Foundation, a 501(c)3 nonprofit organization which donates suits and professional attire to veterans to help them succeed as they transition to a civilian career; is proud to be partnered with Be a Hero-Hire a Hero and pledges to give out over $1,000,000 in business attire to support our veterans on that day!

Join us in the “Women Veterans Pavilion”
Featuring - Fatigues to Fabulous Fashion Showcase

A section of the event will be dedicated to our brave military women and will provide services and information to support employment, education and health. Fatigues to Fabulous will showcase business attire while fashion industry professionals provide tips on dressing for success. Speakers will discuss career opportunities, health topics and provide great networking for our Female Heroes.

FATIGUES
to fabulous

For more information call Jeff Klare at 845-624-3278
www.beahero-hireahero.com