

New York City Policy Drivers	Economic Recovery and Competitiveness			Job Creation and Preservation		Legislation and Funding		Energy Efficiency and Independence		Long-Term Sustainability
PlaNYC: A Greener, Greater New York: An Urban Blueprint for Long-Term Sustainability
New York City Focus	Land			Water		Transportation		Energy		Air
	Housing	Open Space	Brownfields Remediation	Water Quality	Water Network	Congestion	State of Good Repair	Renewable Energy	Energy Efficiency	Transportation	Buildings	Power Plants
New York City Workforce Investment Board: A Leader in Green Workforce Development
NYC WIB Objectives	Strategic Partnerships			Policy Alignment and Promotion of Best Practices			Education and Training Models			Research and Evaluation
NYC WIB Strategies	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Coordinate Mayor Bloomberg’s Green Economy Plan and sponsor citywide networking opportunities</li> <li>Develop and facilitate a green jobs “community of practice”</li> <li>Convene stakeholders to address emerging opportunities and challenges and foster collaboration</li> <li>Leverage new and existing initiatives, education and training resources, and investments</li> </ol>			<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Conduct national best practice review of green workforce development strategies</li> <li>Align NYC green strategies with state, regional, and federal growth strategies</li> <li>Pursue opportunities for integration of resources and services</li> <li>Identify and secure funding resources that align with local priorities</li> </ol>			<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Map sustainable education and career pathways leading to portable and industry recognized credentials</li> <li>Support efforts to expand programs and services to prepare workforce for emerging green industry occupations</li> <li>Identify resources to update skills of incumbent workers for green jobs</li> <li>Facilitate access to green training and employment opportunities for disadvantaged populations, including unemployed and dislocated workers</li> </ol>			<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Improve data and information on the green economy to better support the public workforce system</li> <li>Define and project workforce demand and skills gaps for new and existing green jobs</li> <li>Assess current and future training resources and needs</li> <li>Collaborate to share knowledge and resources</li> </ol>		