INSTRUCTIONS. Submit this form when there has been an arm's-length sale of the property or an interest in the property during the past two years or if there is a contract of sale in effect when the application is filed or while the application is pending. If the sale was between related persons, it may be described on Form TC200 instead of this form. If a sale occurs after the application is filed, or if there is a new contract of sale or material change in the terms of the sale, the sale or other change must be disclosed on this form or Form TC200 and submitted at the hearing, attached to Form TC159. If the sale, contract, or other change occurs after the hearing, it must be disclosed before acceptance of any offer of correction, attached to Form TC159.

Always attach this form to an application for correction or affidavit form (TC159). It is not valid or effective to disclose the sale if filed separately.

DEFINITIONS. When using this form, other than in part 2, the terms buyers and sellers include persons related to the named parties. Related persons include individuals related by blood, marriage or adoption, individuals and the business entities they control, business entities under common control, and fiduciaries and the beneficiaries for whom they act. A person includes a corporation or other business entity. Permitted use includes subdivision, cooperative or condominium conversion, new construction, major alteration, zoning change, or grant or transfer of a business license.

ATTACHMENTS. Attach photocopies of the following and list them on the application or affidavit: The closing statement, if any. If there is a sale-lease back, an abstract of the lease. If the deed or contract reserves an interest to the seller, a copy of the relevant document. If the applicant requests an allocation between real and personal property, an itemized list of the personal property and proof of valuation.
