

The Tax Commission and The Department of Finance conduct annual joint information sessions in February shortly after the Tentative Assessment Roll is released in January to help property owners understand the assessment and application process.

The schedule for the annual briefings for 2017 has not been established. Please check this website in December, 2016.