Reminder: Group Ride Stand at East 79th Street & York Avenue
Is a Dual Use Stand!

Passengers May Request Either
Group OR Regular Rides!

The New York City Taxi and Limousine Commission's (NYC TLC) taxi group ride stand at East 79th Street and York Avenue is currently operating as a dual use stand.

The stand can be used by passenger(s) looking for regular taxi service to anywhere in New York City, without exception, at any time.

The stand can also be used by passengers wanting to group ride down to the Financial District. This operation runs from 7 a.m. to 10 a.m. on weekdays, and serves two or more passengers at a flat fare of $6.00 per passenger.

Refusal to transport passenger(s) to their designated location can carry serious penalties, including TLC license suspension or revocation, and will not be tolerated.
