TLC's Long Island City Offices to Remain Temporarily Closed on Wednesday, July 20

Due to ongoing connectivity problems, the TLC's Long Island City Licensing office (the Falchi Building, 31-00 47th Avenue) will remain temporarily closed on Wednesday, July 20.

For vehicle renewals, there are no changes and licensees can renew online using LARS (<https://www1.nyc.gov/lars/>).

New vehicle applications can be filed online using LARS, or dropped off at the Long Island City or Staten Island facility.

For driver license renewals, there are no changes and licensees can renew online using LARS. Printed licenses will be mailed as soon as available.

For new driver applications, there is no change, and applicants should continue to file online using LARS. Printed licenses will be mailed as soon as available.

For base transactions, please submit requests to licensinginquiries@tlc.nyc.gov.

Applications for vehicle, plate and base transfers can be dropped off at the Long Island City or Staten Island facilities.

All scheduled appointments will be automatically updated. To check for further updates, or to access LARS, please visit the TLC's website: www.nyc.gov/taxi.
