JOB DESCRIPTION

The New York City Taxi and Limousine Commission (TLC) is the agency responsible for licensing and regulating New York City's yellow taxicabs, for-hire vehicles (community-based liveries and black cars), commuter vans, paratransit vehicles, and certain luxury limousines. The TLC licenses and regulates over 50,000 vehicles and approximately 100,000 drivers, performs safety and emissions inspections, and holds numerous hearings for violations of City and TLC rules and regulations, making it the most active taxi and limousine licensing regulatory agency in the United States. To learn more about the TLC, please visit: www.nyc.gov/taxi.

The Prosecution Division of the Uniformed Services Bureau is responsible for the prosecution of all summonses issued by the TLC. The Prosecution Division includes the Court Unit which investigates and prosecutes over 30,000 administrative summonses annually, and the Consumer Complaint Unit which investigates and prosecutes complaints initiated by consumers including but not limited to passengers and licensees. Under the direct supervision of the Assistant Commissioner for Prosecution, the selected candidate will investigate and prosecute a variety of cases including cases against agents and owners who are leasing medallions to licensees in violation of TLC rules. The Prosecuting Attorney will appear before the OATH Taxi and Limousine Tribunal.
