All of the Licenses Pictured Below Authorize the Holder to Drive any taxicab or For-Hire Vehicle

Under New York City Law, all of the licenses pictured below are valid to drive a yellow taxicab, a green taxicab and a for-hire vehicle (including liveries, black cars and limousines) until they expire. These licenses do not allow holders to operate a paratransit vehicle or commuter van.

If anyone asks you about your ability to drive a for-hire vehicle, yellow taxicab or green taxicab in New York City you can show them this letter and ask them to direct any questions they have to the Taxi & Limousine Commission. We will be happy to explain the privileges and responsibilities of our licensees.
