16. The results are now displayed on dataset table

The screenshot displays the NYC OpenData website interface. At the top, the browser address bar shows the URL: <https://data.cityofnewyork.us/Transportation/Medallion-Drivers-Active/n776-dsqy>. The page header includes the NYC.gov logo and navigation links for Home, Developers, Sign Up, and Sign In. Below the header, the NYC OpenData logo is prominent, followed by a navigation bar with links for Home, About NYC Open Data, FAQ, and Contact NYC Open Data.

The main content area features a yellow banner for an "Unsaved View" with "Save As..." and "Revert" buttons. Below this, a toolbar contains icons for Manage, More Views, Filter, Visualize, Export, Discuss, Embed, and About. A search box labeled "Find in this Dataset" is also present.

The central element is a data table with the following structure:

	Type	Expiration Date	Last Updated Date
1	MEDALLION TAXI DRIVER	11/25/2014	05/24/2013

A yellow arrow points upwards towards the "Last Updated Date" column of the table. To the right of the table is a "Filter" sidebar. It includes a "Sort & Roll-Up" dropdown and a "Filter" section with the text "Filter this dataset based on contents." Two filter conditions are visible: "License Number is" with a checked checkbox and the value "5414895", and "Last Updated Date is" with a checked checkbox and the value "05/24/2013". A button at the bottom of the sidebar reads "+ Add a New Filter Condition".

The footer of the page contains the copyright notice "© 2013 The City of New York", the NYC Information Technology & Telecommunications logo, the NYC Digital logo, and links for "Terms of Service" and "Privacy".

17. To export the results to Excel (or any other format), click on the light blue button called "Export"

The screenshot shows the NYC OpenData website interface. At the top, there is a navigation bar with links for Home, Developers, Sign Up, and Sign In. Below this is the NYC OpenData logo and another navigation bar with links for Home, About NYC Open Data, FAQ, and Contact NYC Open Data. The main content area features a table titled "Medallion Drivers - Active" with columns for Type, Expiration Date, Last Updated Date, and Last Update. A yellow arrow points to the "Export" button in the top right corner of the table's toolbar. The "Export" button is light blue and is circled in red. Below the table, there is a "Filter" panel with search criteria for "License Number" and "Last Updated Date".

19. The file is now saved locally to your computer. In this example, shown below, Chrome web browser displays the save file dialog box toward the left bottom portion of the screen.

The screenshot shows a Chrome browser window displaying the NYC OpenData website. The address bar shows the URL: <https://data.cityofnewyork.us/Transportation/Medallion-Drivers-Active/n776-dsqy>. The website header includes the NYC logo and navigation links: Home, Developers, Sign Up, Sign In. Below the header, there are tabs for Home, About NYC Open Data, FAQ, and Contact NYC Open Data. The main content area shows a table titled "Medallion Drivers - Active" with columns: Type, Expiration Date, Last Updated Date, and Last Update. The table contains one row with the following data: Type: MEDALLION TAXI DRIVER, Expiration Date: 11/25/2014, Last Updated Date: 05/24/2013, Last Update: 13:20. To the right of the table, there is an "Export" menu with options: API, Print, Download, and Done. The "Download" option is selected, and a list of download formats is shown: CSV, JSON, PDF, RDF, RSS, XLS, XLSX, and XML. A large yellow arrow points to the bottom left corner of the browser window, where a save file dialog box is visible. The dialog box shows the file name "Medallion_Drivers_-_Ac...xls" and is circled in orange. The footer of the website includes the copyright notice "© 2013 The City of New York", the NYC Information Technology & Telecommunications logo, the NYC Digital logo, and links for Terms of Service and Privacy.

20. Clicking on the saved "XLS" file opens the data in Excel. The datasets are identical on the web and on Excel as shown below.

The image shows a comparison between data on the NYC OpenData website and the same data in Microsoft Excel. The website view (top) shows a table with columns: Type, Expiration Date, Last Updated Date, and Last Updated. A single row is highlighted with an orange box, containing the following data: Type: .A, Expiration Date: 11/25/2014, Last Updated Date: 05/24/2013, Last Updated: 13:20. The Excel view (bottom) shows the same data imported into a spreadsheet. The Excel spreadsheet has columns: License Number, Name, Type, Expiration Date, Last Updated Date, and Last Updated. The same row of data is highlighted with an orange box. Two yellow arrows point from the website's data row to the corresponding row in the Excel spreadsheet, indicating that the data is identical in both formats.
