The Storm

They were prepared for everything...

... except...

-crack! - boom!

The Storm!
The Morning of the Picnic

Aku is going to the beach. Later on, she’s going to meet her parents in the park for a picnic.

Aku leaves. Kojo is proud of his daughter!

Bye. See you at the picnic!

What time did I say to meet?

4 o’clock. At the entrance to the park. I’ll be there...

Bye!

That’s my girl, all right. Just like me… Born to swim. Born to fish!

I’m going to show this boat to Alberto. He told me he had a boat back home, too.

What time are Alberto and Isabel coming over?
Kojo and Alberto

A couple of hours later...
Efie and Kojo’s friends come over before the picnic.
Kojo and his friend Alberto talk about boats.

You know what we need, Alberto? We need a boat, right here in New York City.

Beautiful, Alberto!

Then we wouldn’t have to work in the restaurant. We could sell fish to the restaurant!

A fishing boat!

Or, maybe a tour boat.

Exactly! We’ll take tourists to the Statue of Liberty.
Efie and Isabel change the topic. They talk about the picnic.

Let’s talk about the picnic. Isabel, do we have the food?

Do we have food?! Chicken, jollof rice, empanadas…

Kojo, do you have the lemonade and iced tea?

Lemonade, check. Tea, check.

Alberto, do you have the cake?

The cake? I made it myself!

We’ve got our meeting place, too. Aku knows where to meet us.

We are prepared for everything!
Weather Alert!

A warning about a serious storm comes on TV.

The TV announcer says: “An alert has been issued for a severe thunderstorm and possible tornado. These are very dangerous weather conditions. Stay indoors. Do not go outside.”

Efie and Isabel listen to the weather alert. Everyone is worried.

Flood warnings… Hazardous weather conditions… That doesn’t sound good.

I’m worried about Aku.

I’m going to call her right now.

Aku’s phone rings. Efie goes to get it. She realizes something…

That’s Aku’s phone!

She left it home. She forgot it.
Lesson #
The Storm Is Coming

What should they do?

That looks really bad. I’m going to the beach to find Aku.

I’m going too.

But what about the storm? They said to stay indoors.

Kojo and Alberto decide to go look for Aku.

My daughter’s at the beach. Big waves… lightning… There’s a huge storm coming!

Efie, you better stay here in case she comes back.
The Storm Is Here

The storm is worse than expected. Efie and Isabel are waiting. They are very worried.

Efie’s phone rings. But the line goes dead...

... and the power goes out.
Mrs. Chen sits at the kitchen table with Efie and Isabel. They talk about preparing for emergencies.

Mrs. Chen?!

I’m just checking on the people I know in the building to see if everyone is okay.

In storms like this, we have to take care of each other.

What can we do to be ready when they come back?

Do you have water? In case the water shuts off, it’s good to have some. Do you have any empty containers?

And maybe we should fill the bathtub. For washing and for flushing the toilet.

Whenever there was a big storm back home, my mother always did that.
They talk about getting ready.

What about flashlights and extra batteries?

Yes, my husband always has extra batteries.

When there was that big hurricane, I bought extra food and water. I got ready. But this storm was so sudden. There was no time!

It pays to get ready, to be prepared all the time. Every storm is different!

Efie remembers some information about getting ready for emergencies. Aku brought it home from school.

Aku had a booklet about getting ready. She brought it home from school…
A Few Months Ago

Some information they gave us in school about getting ready for emergencies... Go Bags, meeting places.

Aku is still missing.

In a Go Bag, you need copies of important documents, phone numbers and addresses of family and friends, a flashlight, bottled water...

Back to the Present...

Aku is still missing.

What's this?

Some information they gave us in school about getting ready for emergencies... Go Bags, meeting places.

What’s this?

Some information they gave us in school about getting ready for emergencies... Go Bags, meeting places.

Why did I let her go?

Why did I let her go?

Why did I let her go?

I'm so glad I'm not alone. I don't know what I'd do without you.

We're all in the same boat, together!

I'm so glad I'm not alone. I don't know what I'd do without you.

I'm so glad I'm not alone. I don't know what I'd do without you.

I'm so glad I'm not alone. I don't know what I'd do without you.

We're all in the same boat, together!

I'm so glad I'm not alone. I don't know what I'd do without you.

I'm so glad I'm not alone. I don't know what I'd do without you.

I'm so glad I'm not alone. I don't know what I'd do without you.

It's not your fault. You didn't know there would be a terrible storm like this.

It's not your fault. You didn't know there would be a terrible storm like this.

It's not your fault. You didn't know there would be a terrible storm like this.

It's not your fault. You didn't know there would be a terrible storm like this.
Kojo and Alberto Return

But where is Aku?

What happened?! Where is she?

There was too much wind and rain. Huge branches were breaking off the trees.

Things were blowing everywhere. It’s terrible out there.

Where is Alberto?

There are two kids stuck in the elevator. Alberto is talking to them right now while the super gets help.

Stuck in an elevator? Don’t they know… You never get in an elevator in an emergency!

Isabel runs out to help. Kojo hugs Efie.
The trees aren’t moving.
The rain has stopped.

Look at all that water in the street!

Hello?
Oh! Where are you?

It’s going to be dark soon.
Where is my child?

Suddenly, the phone rings. It’s Aku!

Hello? Oh! Where are you?
Are you okay?
Aku Is Home!

Aku’s friend’s mother brings Aku home.

So when you heard there was a storm coming, you never left for the beach?

I got a storm alert from “Notify NYC,” so I didn’t let the kids go outside.

Right. We “sheltered in place,” just like they said in school.

It’s not too late to have a picnic... indoors!

What about our picnic?

We can spread a blanket right here on the floor.

It’s still wet outside.

Yes, Aku’s home, and our friends are all here!

Efie: Copies of (5) … documents, addresses and phone numbers of family and friends, bottled (6) … , a flashlight, and a change of clothes.
Lesson 7

Good Question!

The family and friends are talking about getting ready for emergencies. They ask each other questions to get ready. Follow the example.

Do you have extra water in case of an emergency?

Did you buy a flashlight and batteries?

Do you have copies of our important documents in a safe place?

Do you have Efie’s and Kojo’s telephone numbers?

Did you sign up for “Notify NYC”?

Do you know where we should meet in case we are separated?

1. You are Mrs. Chen. Ask your neighbors if they have stored some water in case the water shuts off.

Do you have extra water in case of an emergency?

2. You are Efie. Ask your daughter if she knows where to meet the family in case of an emergency.

3. You are Kojo. Ask your wife if she has copies of the family’s important documents in a safe place.

4. You are Aku. Ask your mom and dad if they have the free service to get text or email message alerts about emergencies.

5. You are Isabel. Ask your husband if he is prepared in case of a blackout.

6. You are Alberto. Ask your wife if she has contact information for friends who can help in case of an emergency.
What Can You Say?

What can you say? Follow the example.

1. You are a meteorologist. Tell people not to go outside in dangerous weather.

   Stay indoors.

2. You are Isabel. Give advice about leaving a high-rise building in an emergency.

3. You are Aku. Tell your mom what to put in a Go Bag.

4. You are Efie. You are very glad that you are not by yourself.

5. You are Mrs. Chen. Say that everyone is in the same situation.

Say the words out loud—like actors on TV!

- We’re all in the same boat.
- Never get in an elevator in an emergency!
- Copies of important documents, phone numbers and addresses of family and friends, a flashlight, bottled water…
- I’m so glad I’m not alone.
- Stay indoors.

What You Can Do
To Get Ready for Emergencies

Efié

Make a plan. Do it now! Talk to your family and friends about how to get ready. Write down names, addresses and telephone numbers of important people. Buy supplies. Make copies of important documents and keep them in a safe place!

Kojo

Choose a meeting place. Know where you will meet family, friends or caregivers after an emergency in case you can’t go home. Pick two places to meet: one outside your home and another outside your neighborhood.

Aku

Pack a Go Bag. Everyone should have a Go Bag—a bag of things you need in case you have to leave in a hurry—to evacuate. Look at the picture on page 24 to see what to put in your Go Bag.

Isabel

Put together an emergency supply kit. In some emergencies you can’t go outside to get what you need. You should keep enough food and water at home for at least three days. You should also have a flashlight and batteries. You need supplies for your health and for everyone in your family, too, including your pets!

Alberto

Get the information you need. There are many kinds of emergencies—weather, fire, health and other kinds. Go to www.nyc.gov/ReadyNY to learn about each one. Sign up for “Notify NYC” to get alerts. Keep your phone charged. And get a radio with batteries in case the power goes out.

Mrs. Chen

Create an emergency support group. You don’t need to be alone in an emergency. Ask at least two people to be in your group: family, friends, neighbors, caregivers or coworkers. Remember, you will help each other in emergencies.

BECOME A LEADER!

Help your community prepare for an emergency.
Join the New York City Citizen Corps Council and learn about volunteer opportunities and how you can help.
Go to NYC.gov/citizencorps or call 311 to find out more.
