The Hospital

Something magical happens in the hospital.

Ask Alisha...
Mrs. Medina and Alisha

Mrs. Medina is in the hospital. Her grandson draws her a picture.

So, how was your visit with the family? Oh, I see you have an artist in your family!

My grandson.

Is that your house?

Yeah. It’s nice to see my home again.

You must miss it very much.

Mrs. Medina is afraid she will never go home.

Yeah. I can’t wait to go back home. But sometimes, I think I’ll never…

Mrs. Medina, we want you to get well as soon as possible. We will do everything we can to help.
Alisha and Daniel

Alisha tells Daniel about Mrs. Medina.

She's afraid she may never walk again.

Who? Mrs. Medina?

Alisha and Daniel want to help her.

If only we could find a way to encourage her.

Maybe if she talks about happy times.

Maybe that would work!

encourage = give hope
Mrs. Medina remembers her life in Colombia.

I used to love to draw when I was growing up in Colombia.

But when I came to this country, I was so busy, I stopped.

Alisha encourages Mrs. Medina to draw again.

Drawing is like riding a bicycle.

Riding a bicycle?!

Once you learn, you never forget. I bet you can still draw.

Later, when Mrs. Medina is alone...

I bet = I’m sure
Mrs. Medina Is Feeling Better

A few days later, Mrs. Medina has a surprise for Alisha.

Mrs. Medina drew beautiful pictures of the hospital workers.

Oh, my goodness! That’s Dr. Patel. She’s going to love this!

And that’s Daniel! How funny. It looks just like him.
Mrs. Medina has one more picture.

I almost forgot… I have one more picture to show you.

Ohhh! Now, who’s that?

Just a wonderful nurse that I know.

These are all so beautiful.

Take them. They are yours. They are for everyone.
Hang Them on the Wall?
Everyone loves the pictures. The medical director has a question.

Daniel shows him the pictures, and Dr. Patel has an idea.

Dr. Collins, a patient did these. Aren’t they wonderful?

It would be great if we could hang them on the wall.

Dr. Collins isn’t sure.

Hang them on the wall, Dr. Patel?

Yes, hang them on the wall, Dr. Collins. Don’t you agree, Alisha?
Let’s Have an Art Show!

Mrs. Medina’s pictures are on the wall. The hospital workers want more art.

Everybody loves them.

People on the other floors are talking. They want pictures, too.

But Mrs. Medina can’t draw pictures of everyone. It’s a big hospital.

Wait a minute… Some of the people who work here are artists, too.

There are probably lots of people who work here who draw and paint and take pictures.

They make a plan.
The Workers Organize an Art Show

Daniel puts up a sign. Orlando talks to Clayton.

Clayton paints with a mop! Halina takes photographs.

Hey, Clayton. Did you hear about the art show?

Toni makes a West Indian headdress.

This is for the art show.
Art in the Hospital

Mrs. Medina wants to talk to Dr. Collins.

Excuse me? Are you in charge of this hospital?

Yes, I am.

She has an idea.

Can you please come into my room for a minute?

A little later, Dr. Collins is in a good mood!

Art in the hospital... I love it!
The Art Show Opens

A reporter from a local newspaper comes to the art show.

My name is Nguyen Tran with the Big City News.

Can you tell me your name and a few things about yourself?

My name is Viviana Medina. I come from Colombia.

But thanks to the staff here, I am alive today, and I'm walking.

Four months ago, I had a terrible accident. I thought I would never walk again.

It's a magical moment.

There is beauty in the hands of these workers and in the goodness of their hearts.

staff = workers
Who We Are

1. My name is Alisha. I’m a nurse at Elmhurst Hospital. I help patients get better. I give them medicine. I talk to them, and I listen to them.

2. My name is Daniel. I’m a nurse, too. Alisha is my coworker. She comes from the Caribbean. I’m from the Philippines. The workers in this hospital come from all over the world.

3. My name is Dr. Patel. I come from India. Mrs. Medina is one of my patients. I help her walk again.

4. My name is Halina. I’m from Poland. I serve food to the patients in the hospital. In my free time, I like to take pictures.

5. My name is Orlando. I’m a maintenance worker from Peru. The nurses and doctors take care of patients. I take care of the building! I also hang the pictures in the art show on the wall.

6. My name is Clayton. I’m from Queens. I also take care of the hospital building. I’m a janitor. Did you see the painting with a mop? That’s my art work!
7. My name is Toni. I am a security guard. I come from the Caribbean. In my free time, I make costumes for the West Indian Day Parade in Brooklyn.

8. My name is Dr. Collins. I live in Staten Island. I’m a medical director, not an art director. But I love the art in my hospital.

9. My name is Mrs. Medina. I come from Colombia. A few months ago, I had a terrible accident. The people in this hospital are fantastic. Thanks to them, I’m alive and I’m walking. I’m drawing again, too. Do you like my art?

10. My name is Nguyen Tran. I come from Vietnam. I’m a newspaper reporter. I interview the workers in the hospital. They tell me their stories. New York City is amazing. Eight million people from all over the world. Eight million stories!

Here are two other characters in The Hospital.
Watch the show and meet them!

We are interpreters. We help patients who don’t speak English.

This means “peace” in Arabic.

This means “get well soon” in Chinese.
