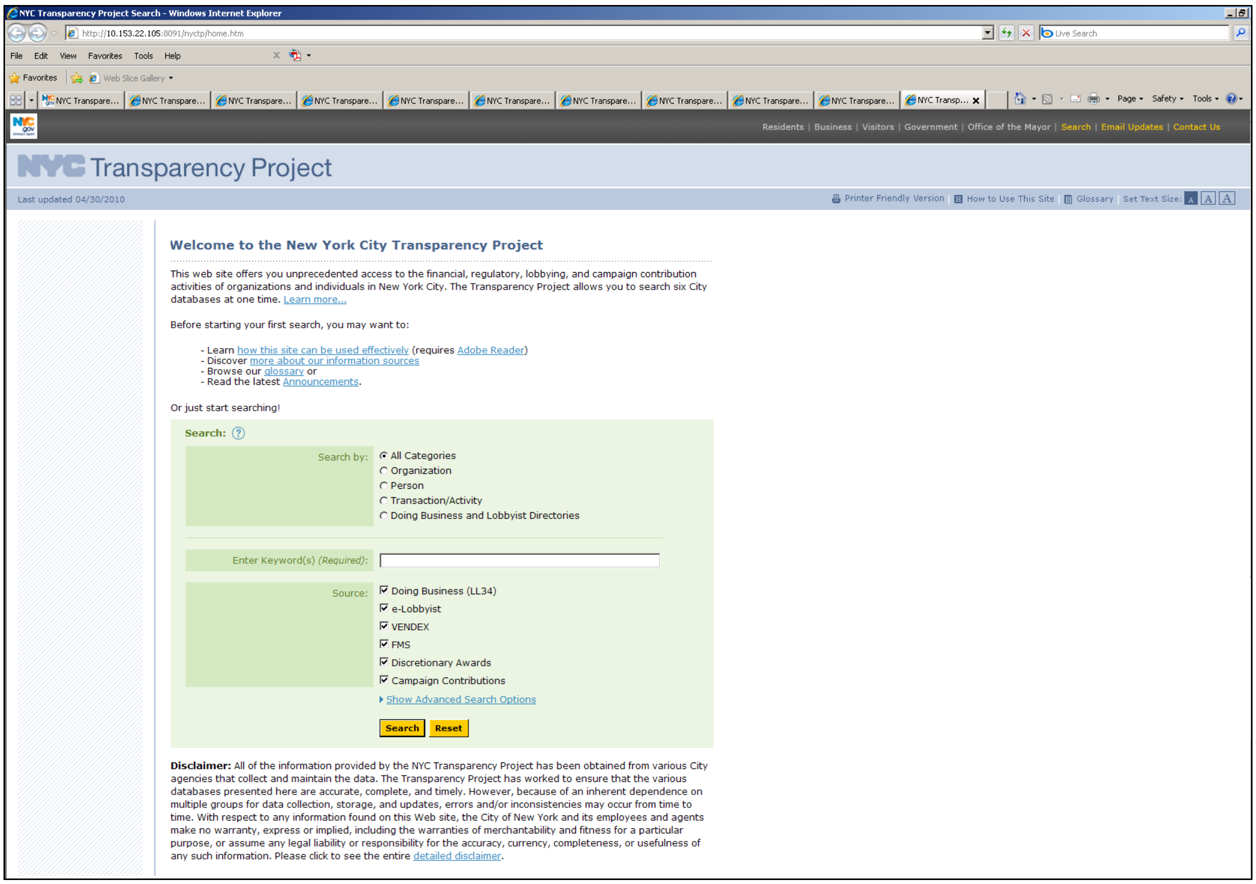
What Does this Site Do?

The Transparency Project Web site allows you to search six different New York City information sources (databases) at one time, so that you can see relationships among people or organizations that have financial relationships with the City, lobby elected officials and agencies, and make campaign contributions. Some of this data has been available to the public before; some is available for the first time.

All search functions can be accessed through the NYC Transparency Project Home screen that displays "Welcome to the New York City Transparency Project":



Data Sources Used

By integrating six different City databases into a single search, you can more easily view the City's dealings with a wide variety of individuals and organizations. The six sources used in the Transparency Project are:

Campaign Contributions

The Campaign Contributions information source displays contributions made by organizations and individuals to candidates for municipal office (Mayor, Public Advocate, Comptroller, Borough President and City Council Member). This information is collected and maintained by the NYC Campaign Finance Board (CFB), which administers the Campaign Finance Program. A more comprehensive search function is available at CFB's Web site. For more information about Campaign Contributions data, see the NYC Transparency Project Data Sources Detailed Information.

Discretionary Awards

Information on Discretionary Awards, also known as line-item awards, is collected from Schedule C of the City budget, which designates City funding for community based not-for-profit organizations. Discretionary Awards are sponsored by one or more Council Members or a Borough President. Schedule C is published on the City Council web site. For more information about Discretionary Awards data, see the NYC Transparency Project Data Sources Detailed Information.

Doing Business (Local Law 34)

Doing Business (Local Law 34) information displays names of entities and individuals that have certain business relationships with the City, as defined by Local Law 34 of 2007 ("pay-to-play" campaign finance reform). Lower municipal campaign contribution limits apply to individuals listed in the Doing Business Database, in order to avoid the appearance or actuality of improper influence in the City's selection of business partners. To learn more about Local Law 34 and the Doing Business Database see the Mayor's Office of Contract Services (MOCS) Web site. For more information about Doing Business (Local Law 34) data, see the NYC Transparency Project Data Sources Detailed Information.

Financial Management System (FMS)

The Financial Management System (FMS) is the City's centralized accounting and budgeting system, jointly maintained by the Office of the Mayor and the Office of the Comptroller. It contains a variety of financial data, including the contract, franchises and concession information displayed on this site. For more information about FMS data, see the NYC Transparency Project Data Sources Detailed Information.

e-Lobbyist

A lobbyist is a person or organization retained, employed or designated by any client to influence public officials on behalf of or against something, e.g., proposed legislation. The Lobbyist information source displays names of lobbyists and their clients, as well as lobbying activities on behalf of City officials and public servants, collected by the Office of the City Clerk. For additional information about lobbyists, visit the City Clerk's Lobbying Bureau Web Site. For more information about e-Lobbyist data, see the NYC Transparency Project Data Sources Detailed Information.

VENDEX

The City's Vendor Information Exchange System (VENDEX) displays detailed information on vendors that engage in certain business dealings with the City. City agencies use VENDEX as part of their determination that vendors have the necessary business integrity and financial capacity to do business with the City. By law, vendors under consideration for award of certain contracts must have complete VENDEX Questionnaires for their organization and principals on file. VENDEX is maintained by the Mayor's Office of Contract Services (MOCS). For additional information on the VENDEX system and questionnaires, see the VENDEX topic on the MOCS web site. For more information about VENDEX data, see the NYC Transparency Project Data Sources Detailed Information.

Much of the data in the Transparency Project is self reported to various New York City Agencies by Vendors, Lobbyists, Clients, and other entities. The data is presented as it was entered, without alteration.

As with any information derived from multiple sources over a period of time, the resulting data may be prone to inconsistencies. Please click to see the entire detailed disclaimer.

How to Search

The NYC Transparency Project Web site lets you search "All Categories," or one category:

- Organization: Companies, vendors, non-profits and other firms.
- Person: People who are associated with these organizations, or who have made campaign contributions.
- Transaction/Activity: The relationships that organizations and people have with the City. The main kinds of relationships are: financial (organizations that have business dealings with the City); lobbying (organizations that lobby City government and the client firms that hire the lobbyists); and campaign contributions.
- Directories: The lists of Organizations and Persons from the Doing Business data source; and the lists of Lobbyists, Client Organizations, and Lobbying Organizations from the e-Lobbyist data source.

All of the Organization, Person, and Transaction/Activity information is linked, so when you search in one category you'll see information from the others. For example, if you do an Organization search for Apple Computer, you'll be able to see the People who are associated with Apple, and the Transactions and Activities that involve both Apple and those People.

Likewise, if you search for a person named Steve Jobs, you'll see all the Organizations he works with. You'll learn that he's the CEO of Apple, and be able to see his possible campaign contributions, and Apple's Transactions and Activities with the City.

If you're not looking for a particular Organization or Person, but want to find out who has contracts of more than $10 million with the City's Technology agency, do a Transaction search, and you'll find both Apple and IBM.

As you see, you can get the same information in more than one way, so start with what you know, and the system does the rest.

When you search in one category, (e.g., "Person"), you will typically find information from other categories; however, choose the category that provides the best method of finding what you're looking for.

Much of the data in the Transparency Project is self reported to various New York City Agencies by Vendors, Lobbyists, Clients, and other entities. The data is presented as it was entered, without alteration.

As with any information derived from multiple sources over a period of time, the resulting data may be prone to inconsistencies. Please click to see the entire detailed disclaimer.

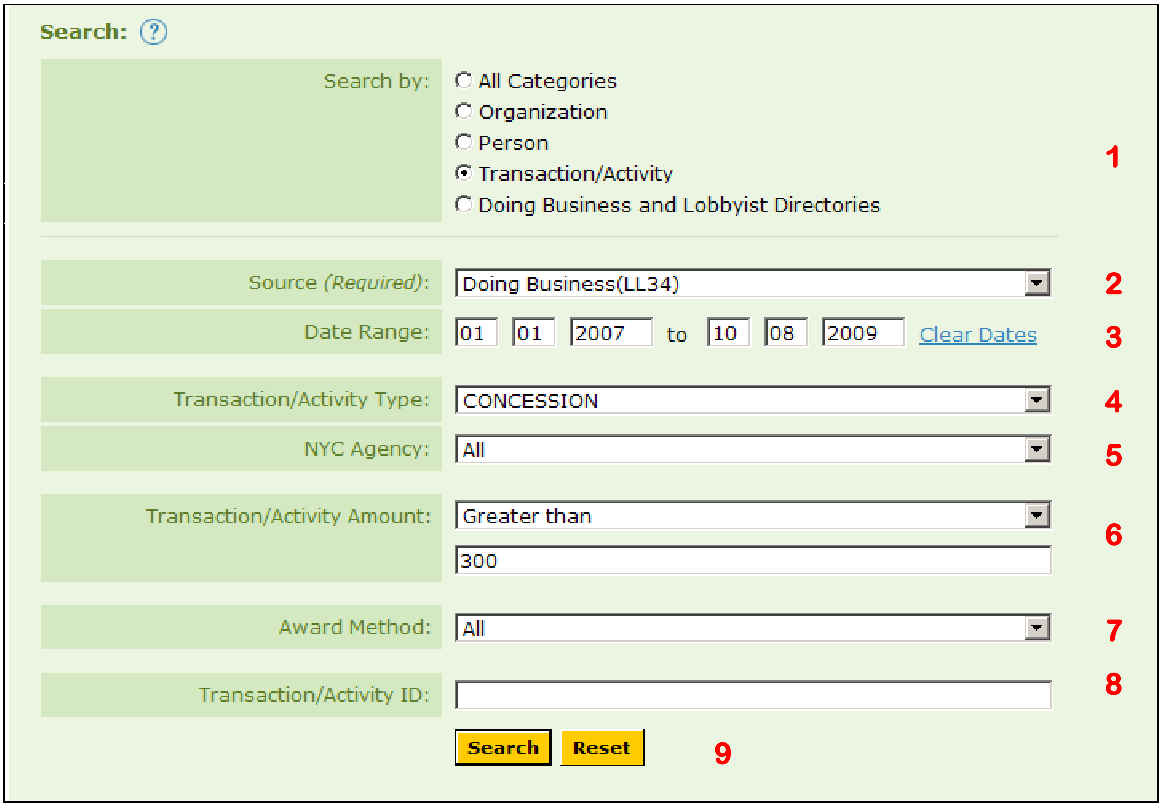
Transaction/Activity

Use the various Transaction/Activity Searches to access individual business transactions or activities, such as contracts or campaign contributions, within the various data sources. All data sources contain transaction information except VENDEX.

Transaction/Activity - Doing Business (Local Law 34) Search

Use this Transaction/Activity – Doing Business (Local Law 34) Search to retrieve information on Organizations and People associated with transactions and activities from the City's Doing Business Information Source. See Doing Business (Local Law 34) in the Glossary for more information.

The red numbers on the image below match those in the steps.



1. For "Search by," select "Transaction/Activity."
2. Select "Doing Business (Local Law 34)" from the "Source" dropdown.
3. To limit your search by "Date Range," type the two-digit month, two-digit day, and four-digit year in the "From" date boxes. Repeat this for the "To" date boxes; otherwise, leave both dates blank.

   If you want to search by "Date Range," you must enter both "From" and "To" dates. A Transaction will be found if it existed at any time during the chosen period.

4. Select a specific Doing Business "Transaction/Activity Type" from the dropdown, (e.g.: CONCESSION or leave "All" selected).

   Unless you have a reason to view only one Type, select "All."

5. To select the specific "NYC Agency" involved with this transaction, select it from the dropdown (or leave "All" selected). See Agency in the Glossary for more information.

6. If you selected Concession, Contract, Franchise, or Grant as the Type (in step #4), you can enter a "Transaction/Activity Amount" (the data source does not record Amounts for other Types). To limit your search by Amount, change "Any Dollar Amount" to the comparison you want, and then enter an amount (e.g.: 300).

   Select "In Range Of" to enter minimum and maximum amounts.

   Limiting your search to larger amounts greatly reduces the number transactions found. Transactions of $5,000 or less aren't covered by the Local Law 34, so they are not displayed.

7. If you selected a Concession, Contract or Franchise type (in step #4), you can select an "Award Method" from the dropdown (or leave "All" selected). This data is not recorded for other Award Methods.

   Award methods describe how procurements are made. See Award Methods in the Glossary for more information.

8. To search for a specific transaction, enter its "Transaction/Activity ID."

   Each financial transaction has an identification code. Because transactions are drawn from many sources, the same code may refer to more than one Transaction.

9. Click the "Search" button to display the results page (or click "Reset" to clear all fields and start over).

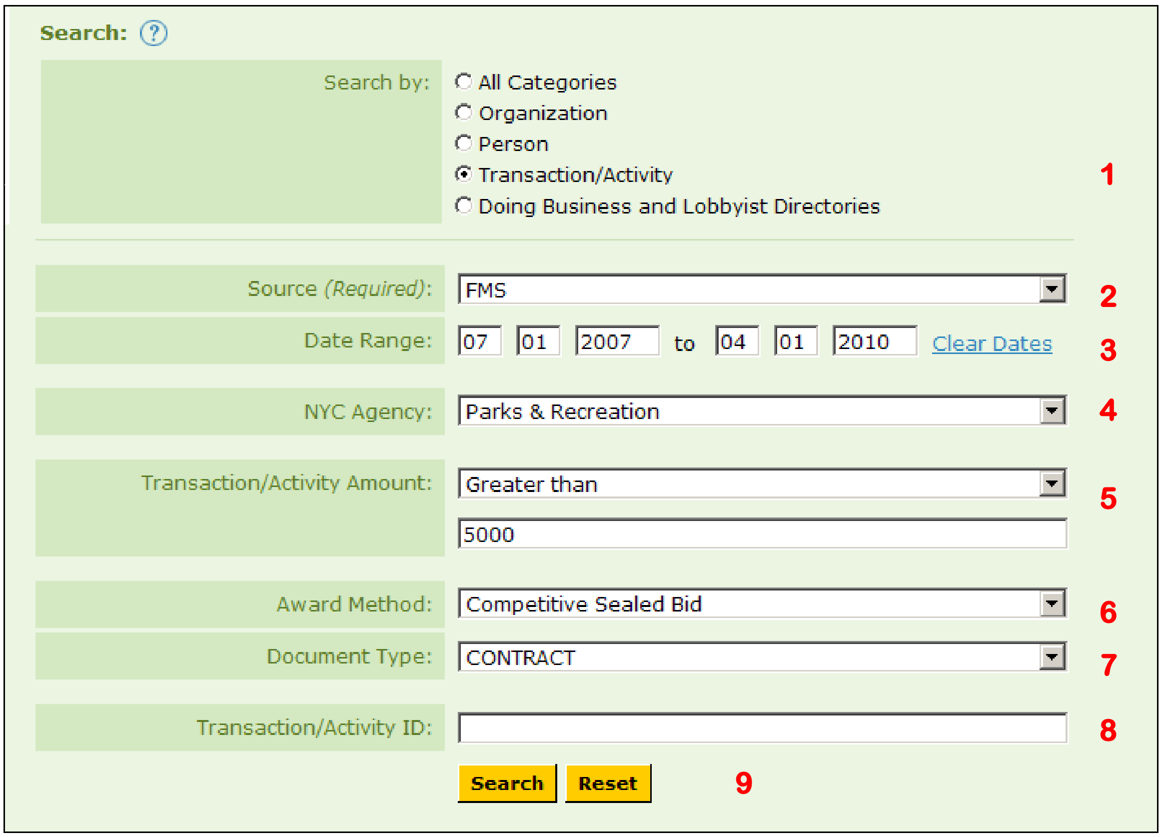
✓ Transaction/Activity – FMS Search

Use this Transaction/Activity – FMS Search to retrieve information on Vendor Organizations and People associated with transactions in the City's Financial Management System Information Source. See FMS in the Glossary for more information.

The red numbers on the image below match those in the steps.



1. For "Search by," select "Transaction/Activity."
2. Select "FMS" from the "Source" dropdown.
3. To limit your search by "Date Range," type the two-digit month, two-digit day and four-digit year in the "From" date boxes and repeat for the "To" date boxes; otherwise, leave both dates blank.

If you want to search by "Date Range," you must enter both "From" and "To" dates. A Transaction will be found if it existed at any time during the chosen period.

4. To select a specific "NYC Agency" involved with this Transaction, select it from the dropdown, (e.g.: Parks & Recreation or leave "All" selected).
5. Enter a "Transaction/Activity Amount" to limit your search by amount. Change "Any Dollar Amount" to the comparison you want, and then enter an amount (e.g., 5000).

   Select "In Range Of" to enter minimum and maximum amounts.

   Limiting by larger amounts reduces the number of transactions.
6. Select an "Award Method" from the dropdown (or leave "All" selected).

   Award methods describe how procurements were made. For example, you can identify whether a contract was the result of a competitive sealed bid, request for proposal, or sole source procurement. See Award Method in the Glossary for more information.
7. Select a "Document Type" from the dropdown to limit your search to a specific contract or purchase type (or leave "All" selected).

   Unless you have a specific reason for choosing one document type, it is best to leave "All" selected.
8. To search for a specific transaction, enter its "Transaction/Activity ID."

   Each financial transaction has an identification code (FMS ID) that is unique within FMS; but might be used by a non-FMS transaction as well. The search results will contain only FMS transactions.
9. Click the "Search" button to display the results page (or click "Reset" to clear all fields and start over).

Improve Your Results for Campaign Contributions

If you do not see the results you are looking for, you can refine your search criteria by using the control bar on the left side of the results page:

1. Select either "Election Cycle" or "Date Range." Unless you have a reason to select a Date Range, Election Cycle will generally give you better results.
    a. "Election Cycle": Select one from the dropdown list (or leave "All" selected).
    b. "Date Range": In the "From" date boxes, enter the two-digit month, two-digit day and four-digit year, and repeat for the "To" date boxes; otherwise, leave both dates blank. To search by Date Range, both start and end dates must be entered. To blank out the dates, click the "Clear Dates" link.

3. "Amount": To limit your search by amount, change "Any Dollar Amount" to the comparison you want, and then enter an Amount. Select "In Range Of" to enter minimum and maximum limit amounts.
4. "Candidates": Click the "Edit Candidates" button to limit your search to certain Candidates:
    a. To view candidates for a particular office, select an "Office Sought" from the dropdown (or leave "All" selected).
    b. Click on the Candidate you want to select on the "Select Candidate(s)" list (hold the Control (Ctrl) key down to select multiple names individually, or hold the Control (Ctrl) and Shift keys down together to select a group of consecutive names).

       If you chose an "Office Sought," only the Candidates for that office are displayed on the "Select Candidate(s)" list.
    c. Click the "Add Selection" link to move selected names to the "Selected Candidate(s)" lower list.
    d. To remove a name, select it on the "Selected Candidate(s)" lower list and click on the "Remove Selection" link (hold the Control (Ctrl) key down to remove multiple names, or click the "Remove All" link to clear all names).
    e. When the desired names are on the "Selected Candidate(s)" lower list, click the "Done" button (or click the "Cancel" button to close the Candidate screen without making selections).
    f. Selected Candidates appear on the search page. To remove a Candidate, click the "Edit Candidate" button.
5. Click the "Search" button to display the new results.

At any time you can click the "New Search" button to return to the Transparency Project Home page main search screen and begin a new search.

Glossary

Agency

Government Agencies are entities that enter into business relationships on behalf of the City. For FMS and Discretionary Award data, these include the various boards, commissions and departments that make up City government, as well as the offices of elected officials. For Doing Business data, these also include the School Construction Authority, Health and Hospitals Corporation, Economic Development Corporation, New York City Housing Authority, and other public benefit corporations and government-related entities. For a complete list of agencies covered by the Transparency project click here.

Award Method

The procurement method used by the City to award a contract, franchise or concession. The most commonly used methods are defined in this glossary; for a complete list and more information see the glossary in the Procurement Indicators Report.

Award Sponsor

An Award Sponsor is a City Council Member or Borough President who initiates a discretionary award as part of the City's budget process. All discretionary awards have Lead Sponsors, and some have Co-Sponsors. See Discretionary Award.

Breadcrumbs

"Breadcrumbs" is a word used to describe a web site navigation technique. Breadcrumbs typically appear horizontally near the top of a web page, providing links back to each previous page that the user navigates through in order to get to the current page. They provide a trail for the user to follow back to the starting/entry point of a web site.

Budget Year

The City's budget year runs from July 1st of the preceding year to June 30th of the given year. This time frame is also known as "Fiscal Year."

Business

See Organization.

Campaign Contribution

Campaign Contributions are monetary or in-kind support of a specific candidate for political office or municipal office (Mayor, Public Advocate, Comptroller, Borough President and City Council Member), made directly by a contributor (organization or individual) or via an intermediary (third party). This information is collected and maintained by the Campaign Finance Board (CFB), which administers the Campaign Finance Program. For more information about the CFB, including the CFB Searchable Database, please see the CFB Web site. For more information about Campaign Contributions data, see the NYC Transparency Project Data Sources Detailed Information.

Client

A person or organization that retains, employs, designates a person, or designates an organization to carry on lobbying activities on its behalf.

Compensation

Compensation is any salary, fee, gift, payment, benefit, loan, advance, or other object of value paid, owed, given, or promised to the lobbyist. If lobbying services are rendered in a certain period, but are not paid until a later period, the amount of compensation owed and expenses incurred must be reported in the period services were rendered.

Competitive Sealed Bid

An award method used for contracts and concessions in which sealed bids are publicly solicited.
