

CPC®/B

SUNY-Queens Educational Opportunity Center

Become a Certified Professional Coder & Biller

"The Medical Billing and Coding field is expected to grow by 21% between now and 2020"

- Bureau of Labor & Statistics

August, 2016

A Tuition Free Comprehensive Training for Career Minded Individuals.

Program Description

Certified Professional Coder (CPC) and Biller is the gold standard for medical coding in physicians office settings. A CPC has proven by rigorous examination and experience that they know how to read a medical chart, (ICD-10CM) procedure (CPT4), and supply (HCPCS Level II) code for a wide variety of clinical cases and services.

The curriculum is developed specifically for students seeking superior proficiency in Medical Coding & Billing.

- Program Objective: Provide the fundamentals of Medical Billing & Coding and prepare to successfully pass the highest standard national coding exam CPC (AAPC)
- Pre-Requisites: Possess and High School Diploma/Equivalency and a commitment to attend, study and ucceed!!
- Duration: 15 weeks. Class meets Monday-Friday 9am-4pm.
- Cost: This training is *tuition free, however students are responsible for some fees applicable to services outside the EOC.
- Minimum Requirements: Be a New York State resident for the last 12 months, meet *EOC Income Eligibility Guidelines (low to moderate), obtain required Reading and Math levels on TABE test.

Visit our Admissions Office TODAY!:

158-29 Archer Avenue - Jamaica, NY 11433

Monday-Thursday 9am-3pm Wednesday Evenings 5:30pm-7pm

Or online at: www.queenseoc.net

Questions About Admission? Contact us at:

718-725-3320 or 725-3380

Administered by York College - City University of New York