

Important information: Selling items in the subway, on public streets, and on sidewalks is prohibited, without permission from the Metropolitan Transportation Authority or the City of New York, and can result in fines. It is unsafe for children to sell goods, especially if they are unsupervised or without an adult.

Know how to access school, childcare, and family services

By law, ALL children in New York City, ages 6 to 17 (or turning 6 before July 1), must be enrolled in school until the end of the school year in which they turn 17.

- Children who turn 6 between July and December must enroll for the upcoming school year. Children may enroll and stay in school until the end of the school year they turn 21. The City can connect you to resources for your children regardless of immigration status. Young children should be supervised at all times for their safety.
- For help enrolling in school and completing required vaccinations, visit schools.nyc.gov/fwc or call (718) 935-2009 (Monday-Friday, 8am-6pm).
- For help finding childcare: There are programs that will take care of and look after your children. These programs are available to you regardless of your immigration status. Please visit <https://www.schools.nyc.gov/BrightStarts> for information about programs for young children.
- For information about youth programs, please visit <https://discoverdycd.dycdconnect.nyc/home>.
- In addition to school and childcare, there are many services available to support parents and caregivers in keeping their family safe and encouraging the wellbeing of your family. For information, email connect@acs.nyc.gov or call 212-676-7667.
- Call, text, or chat 988 to access free, confidential crisis counseling and mental health and substance use support, available 24/7 in over 200 languages. Visit nyc988.cityofnewyork.us/en/ to find services.

Know Your Rights

- You have rights as a worker in New York City regardless of immigration status. No one should force, pressure, or trick you to provide work or services, including selling items without a permit.
- For information about your rights as a worker in NYC, you can visit the NYC Department of Consumer and Worker Protection's (DCWP) website at nyc.gov/workers. You can also scan the QR code to access the NYC Workers' Bill of Rights.
